HARRISBURG, Nov. 23.—Gov. George H. Earle buttressed an explanation of his $26,500 in loans from Matthew M. McCloskey today with a firm denial that the transaction had anything to do with the contractor's success in winning state business.

The governor told before the house graft charge investigating committee how he gave McCloskey 26 checks for $500 each and 10 checks for $1,000—all predated and which McCloskey deposited from time to time.

"There is a balance of $2500 owed for which McCloskey has five $500 checks which will be paid in five months," the governor added.

As collateral for his first $10,000 loan from McCloskey the governor gave 500 shares of stock in the New York Post, valued, he said, at $1 per share.

"I wish I could make such loans for such collateral," remarked Rep. Ellwood J. Turner, Delaware Republican on the committee.

Governor Earle smiled.

Later it was brought out that a second $10,000 loan was made against the same collateral, McCloskey expressed a desire to purchase the

PA NEW C OBSERVES

One of the many evangelists who visit New Castle reminded his audience the other night that some day the meek will inherit the earth. Maybe, so, and probably the first thing that some of them will do will be to build a three car garage.

Harry Steen, of West North street, says that his line business is almost ready to bloom. He has tried to explain to them that this is November, instead of April, but it doesn't seem to do any good. The buds on these flower bushes, he says, just keep getting bigger and bigger. Later never did have any sense.

History lesson for today: About 1803, the first grist mill was erected in New Castle by Crawford White. It stood near the present site of the North street bridge. The first bridge in New Castle was erected over the Shenandoah river in 1834, at the west end of Washington St. At the east end of the same street a bridge was erected over the Neshaminy creek in 1837.

If the predictions of the weather man come true, and there was every indication today that we would, Thanksgiving is going to be real snappy, with a little snow on the ground. Meteorists who have not filled up the radiator with anti-freeze solution, had better have the matter taken care of, if they expect to park the old bus outside anywhere.

School teachers sure have their troubles. In superior court at Philadelphia arguments were heard in an appeal from a Carbon county court decision which held that a teacher, who had completed a three-year

County Highway Safety Record Gets Recognition

With no fanfare publicity, the state highway department of Pennsylvania paid tribute to the Lawrence County department Tuesday afternoon in a special meeting held in the highway building on the Wilmington road. The meeting was for the purpose of marking four full years of operation without a lost time accident in the department in this county.

For the occasion a number of officials from Pittsburgh and Harrisburg were present. Among them were J. Len Campbell, Maintenance Engineer of Pittsburgh, E. E. Kennedy, assistant state safety engineer of Harrisburg and J. K. Morrow, district safety engineer of Pittsburgh.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—The American government is strongly opposed to the return to Germany by Great Britain and France, of West African colonies seized from the Reich at the end of the World war, International News Service learned today.

The American attitude, which has been communicated informally to Britain and France, is understood to be one of the principal reasons for their sudden stiffening attitude against Germany since the Munich debacle.

Two other contributory reasons are cited:

String Lights For Christmas Lighting Here

Decorations For Holiday
Period Are Being Placed
In Business District

HOLIDAY STORE HOURS ARRANGED

Preparations are now being actively made by the merchants of the city for the Christmas holiday period, and the Christmas lighting system which will enliven the business district is now being put in place.

Arrangements for the lighting of the downtown section and the decorations which go with it, are in charge of a committee headed by Charles Nolan, Jr. Work of putting up the Christmas trees, two of which will be placed at each electric light standard along Washington street, and some of the side streets, was started late Tuesday afternoon, and it is hoped can be completed so that the lights can be turned on Saturday evening. If not, they will be on by Monday evening for sure, it is stated.

In addition, the Christmas period store hours have been established for the month of December. All of the jewelry stores will be open Saturday evening starting December 3. The other stores will start to keep evening hours beginning with Saturday evening, December 17.

The merchants have anticipated the wants of the holiday shoppers here with a fine stock of seasonable merchandise and citizens of the community will find their every wish for the Christmas season in the stores here.

Sixty Are Killed In Two Air Raids Over Barcelona

(International News Service)
BARCELONA, Nov. 23.—Sixty persons were killed and 100 wounded in two insurgent air raids on Barcelona today.

Eight planes took part in the raids, causing heavy damage to property. Anti-aircraft batteries were in action, and one of the raiders was shot down.

During the raid civilians left their homes to escape the accurate shooting of the anti-aircraft batteries. The raiding planes were continually surrounded by puffs of smoke from exploding shells.

Germany Makes Plan To Collect Fine From Jews

Twenty Per Cent Surtax On Capital Possessions Will Be Assessed

FOREIGN JEWS ARE EXEMPT FROM LEVY

Plan Is Also Evolved For Dissolving Instantly
"Mixed" Marriages

BERLIN, Nov. 23.—The $400,000,000 fine imposed on German Jews for the murder of Ernst Von Rath, third secretary of the German embassy in Paris, who was shot by a Polish Jew, will be collected from means of a 20 per cent surtax on the capital possessions of Jews amounting to more than 5,000 marks, it was announced today.

The official Gazette, which served notice of the government's procedure in collecting the fine, stated that foreign Jews residing in Germany are exempt from the levy.

To Dissolve Mixed Marriages

At the same time, it was understood that the Nazis among the forthcoming new anti-Jewish decrees, are expected to announce a provision whereby a "mixed" marriage between a Jew or part-Jew and an "Aryan" can be dissolved instantly.

According to the official Gazette, the fine which was imposed on Jews for the death of Ernst Von Rath, third secretary of the German embassy in Paris, who was shot by a Polish Jew, will be collected from German Jews and "Jews" without nationality living in the Reich. It is payable in four installments.

The announcement said the surtax will be based on the assessment of Jewish property decreed on April 26, adding Jews need not contribute to payment of the fine unless their property, following deduction of debts exceed 5,000 marks.

To Seize Insurance

Jewish claims against insurance companies for property damages must be paid by the companies to local tax officials who will credit these amounts to the Jews in part payment of the fine. Should these payments exceed contributions of individual Jews, the balance will be declared forfeit to the state.

The surtax installments are payable on the 15th of December, February, May and August. Stocks, bonds and real estate may be turned over to the Reich in payment.

It was declared, however, that the (Continued On Page Two)

MANY FAMILIES
TO HAVE REUNIONS

From Portland to Portland and from Seattle to Key West, Americans will pause tomorrow long enough to return thanks. And this year the thanks can be very genuine for never in many years has this nation had as much to be thankful for. Hardly a nation in the Old World but is shaken with internal dissension and the glooming shadow of war.

Locally the schedule will be much the same as it will be in any other American city. Church services in the morning for some, family dinner at noon or at six o'clock, depending upon the family's interest in football. Family reunions in the afternoon or after the dinner hour, shows, dances, parties and there you have it.

Four union church services will be held in New Castle Thursday morning. In the afternoon it is expected a large crowd will go to (Continued On Page Two)

Franco-German 'No War' Pact To Be Announced

Expect News Of Agreement
To Be Made Public During Night

PARALLELS RECENT
ANGLO-GERMAN PACT

Declaration Will Be Timed
To Coincide With Arrival
Of Chamberlain

(BULLETIN)

(Copyright and News Service)

PARIS, Nov. 23.—A Franco-German declaration of unity, paralleling the Anglo-German "no war" declaration brought back by Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain from his Munich meeting with Chancellor Adolf Hitler, will be officially announced tonight, it was learned here.

Officials confirmed widely-circulated rumors that announcement of the pact, Franco-German declaration would be timed to coincide with the arrival here of Prime Minister Chamberlain and Foreign Secretary Viscount Halifax of Great Britain.

Document Completed

Work on the document, which has been under discussion for several weeks, was completed early this afternoon and an official announcement will be made tonight.

The declaration, it was understood, would be part of a general Franco-German understanding, carrying out the friendly sentiments expressed at the Benicazul meeting yesterday of Chamberlain with Robert Comolun, new French ambassador to Germany.

Plans for a general European agreement, the Franco-German understanding it was said here, will include recognition of the respective frontiers and an affirmation of good will. It will also contain an agreement for mutual consultation in the event of differences, with the reservation that particular relations with third parties will be given special consideration.

May Be Three-Power Pact

Well-informed observers foresaw the possibility that the visit to Paris of the French ambassador might be extended into a three-power meeting, and even a four-power consultation, continuing the Munich talks.
German Foreign Minister Joachim Von Ribbentrop, it was asserted here, is contemplating a visit to Paris to take place possibly before the departure of Chamberlain and Halifax. If he does come here, as part of the general Franco-German discussions, it was believed that an Italian representative might also join the talks.

First Highway Ashing Started

First of the season, ashes are being put on hills of the state highway in the county today. It was announced in the highway department offices. The need for them is not so great as it once was, being asked, but even the ones that are left are in great demand.

Travel over the highways requires only ordinary caution, it was said. The snow at noon had developed into slush which could cause accidents with reckless drivers.

One more game to retrieve the losses, one more game and the season's done, one more game and they told the molesting football is over my friends, and done. One more game to the bidding here, one more game to that long last pass, one more game to buy fifty gold tickets, one more chance at that bacon loss. Turkey Day closes in the season, with it here you are it to begin, follow the team as they play in Sharon, see if you can't help root them in.

Police To Have Annual Dance Thursday Night

Receipts From Ball In

The Pension Fund

DANCE HOURS
FROM 9 P. M. TO 1 A. M.

All plans have been completed for the annual police ball to be held by the Fraternal Order of Police, Lodge No. 21, in the Cathedral, Thanksgiving night.

According to Police Lieutenant Carl E. Suber, who is general chairman, a crowd of at least 1,500 is anticipated. In fact the dance tomorrow will attract more patrons than any police dance held in the past, said Suber, president of the local lodge.

The receipts from the ball will be placed in the Police pension fund. At present there are a number of officers new on the pension list. They will compose a special reception committee according to Suber.
One of the most entrancing orchestras has been engaged and during the affair, Fred Meier's song hit from a Blind Date With You will be sung by Miss Lavinia, a popular soloist of the city. The solo singer, by a local composer, has been sung in various cities and is said to be a very attractive number.

Police Committees

The reception committee will be composed of Chief of Police Ralph A. Casper, Lieutenant George S. Kennedy, Lieutenant Carl E. Suber, and Police Captain Alvin P. McKibben, according to announcement today.

The floor committee will consist of (Continued On Page Two)

Georgia Is Given Fund Warning

President Hits At Situation

Says State Must Show Signs Of Cooperating On Government Programs

ROOSEVELT TALKS TO MEN OF PRESS

By GEORGE DUNNO
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WARM SPRINGS, Ga., Nov. 23.—Another potential political controversy was brewing in Georgia today as a result of President Roosevelt's second intervention within recent months in the internal affairs of his "adopted state."

The president, from his Warm Springs cottage, served notice that Georgia would not get another cent of federal money until the state really shows signs of cooperating with the Washington government on its PWA and RFC programs.

Warning Delivered

This warning, delivered at a press conference, came only a few over three months after Mr. Roosevelt invaded Georgia in an unsuccessful attempt to defeat Senator Walter F. George for re-nomination—tantamount to re-election—in the Democratic primaries.

The discussion of Georgia fiscal affairs in relation to the federal treasury afforded the only bit of new information to come out of Warm Springs, where the president apparently is giving himself over to as many vacation activities and as little work as possible in the next ten days.

The blast at Georgia's failure to cooperate developed rather unexpectedly as two Atlanta reporters inquired about the possibility that Gov. E. D. Rivers might pay a visit to discuss state projects. In turn, Mr. Roosevelt inquired how projects already approved were progressing.

GOVERNOR EARLE ADDS TO DENIALS IN STATE PROBE

Post stock after the loans had been repaid, the governor said, but the shares are still standing as collateral on the loan.

The governor denied emphatically that he had approved the appointment of inspectors on projects to be built by McCloskey—inspectors employed by McCloskey.

"Did McCloskey give you any money or award that you would favor him in his contracts with the general state authority?" the governor was asked.

"Never," he replied.

Explains Loans

Asked then about the loans, the governor launched into his explanation of them.

The governor's second-day testimony opened with interrogation on the allegation of "kickbacks" on state truck purchases, of which the chief executive denied any knowledge.

At a meeting in Philadelphia the matter of highway truck purchases was discussed by the governor, the late secretary of highways Warren Van Dyke, Arthur W. Howe, Jr., then budget secretary and Edward J. W. Prendergast, secretary to the governor, it was testified.

"I said the purchase was all right, with me if Van Dyke gave me his assurance that only trucks would be purchased that were absolutely necessary," the governor said.

These awards, the governor continued, were approved by the auditor general and state treasurer who then were Republicans.

Governor Earle told the committee he acquired the New York Post stock at the time J. David Stern, publisher of the Philadelphia Record, bought the Post.

"There was an option to buy 500 shares at $1 a share and I exercised the option," the governor explained. "This was at the time Stern bought the Post. I gave him my note for $50,000."

The note transaction, he explained, was merely giving "my support to a worthy cause," the governor said.

"I paid no interest. I made no profit whatever. I sold the bonds for exactly what I paid for them."

The $50,000 note matter was explained by the governor as a book transaction in which the governor gave his credit support to aid the New York Post.

"I thought the Post ought to be aided," he said. "There are very few liberal papers in this country."

Community Peace Meeting Tuesday Is Well Attended

Rabbi Philip S. Bernstein, Rochester, N. Y., Delivers Interesting Address

Approximately 150 persons gathered in Temple Israel, Tuesday evening, for the community peace meeting sponsored by New Castle Section National Council of Jewish Women, Hadassah, Jewish Ladies Relief Society, Temple Israel and Tifereth Israel Sisterhoods.

Mrs. William Cosel, chairman of the community peace committee, introduced Rabbi Philip S. Bernstein, of Temple Beth Kodesh in Rochester, New York, the speaker of the evening. His subject was: "Can the United States Stay Out of War?"

Rabbi Bernstein's address was most interesting as well as educational. He brought a number of vital points relative to his topic.

Rabbi Bernstein is a graduate of Syracuse University and the Jewish Institute of Religion, and also pursued post-graduate studies at Columbia University, Cambridge University in England and the Hebrew University in Jerusalem.

AMERICANS OPPOSE COLONIES RETURN

course in two years, was not entitled to the salary of a teacher, who finished the course in the regular time. Miss Ethel Paisley, the teacher, had been drawing pay on the basis of a two-year course and believes she is entitled to the higher rating. To our untutored mind it would appear that she is right. What say you?

Some of our neighboring cities are already putting up their Christmas decorations. In the downtown section of Sharon several thousand red and green lights were turned on this week. They will be burned from 3 p. m. afternoon and evening from now until Christmas. The lights are intertwined with laurel, and extend throughout the entire business section. New Castle will also be decorated this year as usual, but first wants to get Thanksgiving out of the way.

It seems that some of us were born too soon. At any rate, we had to do some hard studying in our school days, learning the three R's, and racking our brains, with intricate problems in Soddard's mental arithmetic. This regret that our birth was not postponed, is evoked by a dispatch from Zanesville, Ohio, which says that the Junior Chamber of Commerce is back of a movement to install radio receiving sets in every school room, city and county. What a pleasure it would be to sit in a school room and absorb learning through our ears.

Since the arrival of triplets down at the New Castle hospital, many a mother who has had her hands full with one baby, is wondering what she would do with three. Think of tripling every act necessary in the rearing of one baby. Three to feed, wash, keep clean, put to bed, dress in the morning, and look after through the day. But the happy mother is not worrying about the work. Her great desire is that all may live, and that she will have the opportunity of rearing them.

The fact that Christmas is only a month away now was emphasized by the fact that the Christmas decorations are going up in the business section of the city. It is not too early to start the Christmas shopping while the stores are not so crowded. Those four weeks from now until the great day will slip around all too soon.

One gets a good idea of our cosmopolitan population by attending naturalization court this week. In addition to two hundred and twenty-eight applicants for citizenship papers, there are two witnesses, mostly naturalized citizens, for each applicant. Sitting in the court room one gets the impression that he must be in some foreign country. These applicants go into our great melting pot, and refined by knowledge of our great Republican form of government, come from the crucible American voters. Without exception the applicants have disclaimed membership in any communist or radical organization, so the natural inference is that they will become good citizens.

Whether you are going to church to visit your relatives or to the football game, you had better dress warmly on Thanksgiving Day. The weatherman says snow and colder for tonight, and fair and much colder for Thursday.

Deaths of the Day

Miss Sylvia Fisher

Sylvia Fisher, aged 81 years and 11 months, passed away in the Almira Home Tuesday at 3:30 p. m. of complications made serious by her advanced age.

Miss Fisher was born in Lawrence county, near East Brook, on December 22, 1856, daughter of Thomas George and Mary Burns Fisher.

Seventy-two years ago Miss Fisher joined the Rich Hill Presbyterian church and she was a faithful member for many years afterward. After entering the Almira Home on East Washington street 14 years ago, she became a member of the Central Presbyterian church of New Castle.

Surviving are her brother, Rev. Grant E. Fisher, D. D., of this city, and a number of nieces and nephews.

The body has been removed to the Campbell funeral home, on East North street, to remain until 10 o'clock Friday morning, then to be returned to the Almira Home where funeral services will be conducted Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Dr. Charles B. Winger, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church, will be in charge. Interment will be made in the United Presbyterian cemetery at East Brook.

Friends may call at the Campbell funeral home to view the body, at any time.

Mrs. Mary Hogue

Mrs. Mary Almira Hogue, aged 86 years, died at 3 p. m. Tuesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Monty Mauch, 285 West Grant street, after three months of illness.

Mrs. Hogue was born in Lawrence county on February 22, 1852, daughter of Joseph and Peziah Rose Morrison. She married Ebenezer Hogue and was preceded in death by her husband 14 years ago. She was a member of the Second U. P. church of New Castle.

Surviving are two sons, Roy S. of Minneapolis and W. Harold of New Castle; two daughters, Mrs. Monty Mauch and Mrs. Charles I. Allen of New Castle; five grandchildren, four great-grandchildren, a half-sister, Mrs. E. K. Kerr, and a half-brother, Edward Morrison, both of New Castle.

Funeral services will take place Friday at 3 p. m. from Mrs. Margaret Hogue, with Rev. Calvin Rose, pastor of the Second U. P. church, in charge. Interment will be in Gracefield cemetery.

Frank C. Blair

Frank C. Blair, son of the late Charles Blair of Plaingrove township, Lawrence county, died at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in Pittsburgh, where he resided, according to word received by local friends.

Mr. Blair leaves his wife, Gene Evans Blair, one son, Charles at home; two grandchildren, one sister, Mrs. P. W. Thompson of Greencastle, and one niece, Mrs. Francis Simpson of Volant. He was a member of the Presbyterian church and of the Masons.

Funeral of Mrs. Dime

High mass of requiem for the late Mrs. James E. Dime, of Castlewood, Pa., was celebrated by Rev. Fr. Joseph A. Doerr, her pastor, in St. Joseph's church this morning at 8:30 o'clock.

The pallbearers were Joseph Alexander, George Chip, Thomas McMahon, John Thomas and Robert Lamore.

Interment was in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Funeral of Mrs. Cook

Funeral services for Mrs. George Cook, Sr. of Wampum, conducted at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in the Marshall funeral home, were attended by a large gathering of friends. In memory of the departed one, many beautiful flowers had been sent by relatives and friends.

The services were in charge of the Wampum Presbyterian minister, Rev. J. Greer Bingham.

Pallbearers were George Cook, Jr., Elton Cook, Robert Brown, Ralph Prentice, Harvey Yoho and Charles Odell. Interment was in Clinton cemetery.

Funeral of Mrs. Reusio

A large number of friends assembled in the residence at two o'clock Tuesday afternoon for the funeral of the late Mrs. Augusta Benson of North Beaver township. Many beautiful flowers bore further testimony to the love Mrs. Benson had engendered in the hearts of all who knew her.

Rev. E. A. Shoemaker, pastor of the Westfield Presbyterian church, was assisted in the services by Rev. T. C. Henderson of the Moravia Presbyterian church.

Mr. and Mrs. Wylie Browster sang two beautiful hymns, "In the Garden" and "The Old Rugged Cross," with accompaniment by Miss Margaret Duff. The pallbearers were James Gilmore, Norman Duff, David Kyle, Frank Paden, Harold Wallace and John Robison. Interment was made in Westfield cemetery.

Sharon, where the high school team plays its final game of the season with the Sharon team.

Weather indications point to a perfectly good time for football and track. The Sharon team is solid in the back field, but gets heavy opposition with the wet work of today. With probably a perfect day, football and track will seem to be out of the question.

For the last hardy football will be a matter of going back in the case of the Sharon team, over the side of the hill. The Sharon team are all under the weather, and probably the game will be a matter of going back in the case of the Sharon team, over the side of the hill.

CALIFORNIA WEDDING OF INTEREST HERE

Announcement is made of a marriage which took place at Los Angeles, California, of Miss Cecelia Hasulak, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Hasulak of 17 West Terrace avenue, this city, and Harry L. Rigby of the coast city and formerly of New Castle.

The vows were exchanged in the Highland Park Christian church, 5728 Aldama avenue, on the first of October, this year. Rev. Alden Lee Hill, pastor, officiated.

They had as attendants, Ruby Pemberton and Raymond Pemberton, cousins of the groom.

A special guest was Miss Gladys Rich of Ogden, Utah, who is now living in Los Angeles. She was a former music supervisor in New Castle High school and at Clarion State Teachers College.

The bride has lived in this city all her life until September when she departed for California. She graduated in the June class of '34, at the local high school and was active in musical circles. She was a member of the Brahms Ladies Chorus here and took part in the Carnegie Illinois Choir, the company she was affiliated with.

The groom is a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Phelps of Rigby Post Office and for the past three years, has made Los Angeles his home. He is connected with the Paris Beauty Supply Company of that city.

N. N. CLUB MEMBERS AT MCKNIGHT HOME

Mrs. Lewis McKnight of DuShane street was a pleasing hostess Tuesday evening, when the N. N. club members gathered at her home for their regular meeting.

CO-HOSTESSES TO EAST BROOK CLUB

Mrs. Edward Kennedy and Mrs. Linnie Hinkson were co-hostesses to members of the East Brook Garden club on Tuesday evening in the home of the former at East Brook. Mrs. Omar Pink had charge of the meeting and it opened with the group repeating the club creed in unison.

A call of committees took place and a discussion regarding the Christmas party to be held next month was also held. There will be an exchange of gifts at the party.

Installation of officers took place, the following being installed: president, Mrs. Mae McConaghy; first vice president, Mrs. S. A. Black; second vice president, Mrs. Paul Wilson; recording secretary, Mrs. Harold Allen; corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. O. Mayberry; treasurer, Mrs. Frank Alborn; member at large, Mrs. P. J. Waddington.

The evening's program was in charge of Mrs. M. M. Ingham. Members responded to tell call with "Parks I Have Visited" and there was an exhibition of beautiful park pictures.

Mrs. Omar Pink gave a reading regarding the sugar pine, giving a description and telling of the fight to protect it. Following, Mrs. S. A. Black spoke, her subject being "A Patriotic Pilgrimage to Eastern National Parks". She told about the Shenandoah Valley, Virginia, South Carolina, Kentucky, Mammoth Caves, National Bridge of West Virginia and Daniel Boone's trail. Her address was most interesting and enlightening.

The December meeting will be with Mrs. F. J. Waddington, East Brook, the exact date to be announced. Co-hostesses will be Edna Waddington and Mrs. Mae McConaghy.

MR. AND MRS. G. REIDER HAVE ANNIVERSARY

On Thanksgiving Day, November 24, Mr. and Mrs. George Reider, of 1311 Wilmington avenue, will celebrate their fortieth wedding anniversary at their home.

The occasion will be fittingly celebrated in a quiet manner, with a family dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Reider are the parents of eight children. They are as follows: Mrs. Joseph McCombs, of 219 West Sheridan avenue; Mrs. David Jones, of 112 Milton street; Jack Reider, of Follansbee, W. Va., who will be here for the event; Mrs. Agnes Quarello, of 707 East Lutton street; Paul, George and Bernadine. Another daughter, Helen, deceased. They have nine grandchildren and one, Dorothy, deceased.

While there is no reception planned, the couple will be "at home" for those friends, relatives and neighbors desiring to "drop in."

Theta-Rho
The Theta-Rho club will meet on Friday evening at 7:30, in the Odd Fellows hall for their regular meeting and nomination of officers.

ANDERSON-KELLY WEDDING TUESDAY

A quiet wedding ceremony was solemnized at high noon on Tuesday, November 22, at the home of Mrs. W. Lee McCracken at Slippery Rock, when her daughter, Miss Rebecca Anderson, New Castle, became the bride of Arthur L. Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kelly, R. D. 7, New Castle.

Dr. S. A. Kirkbride of New Wilmington officiated in the presence of close friends and relatives.

The bride was attired in a street-length dress of brown with harmonizing accessories. She wore a shoulder corsage of Talsman roses and baby mums. Her only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Charles A. Jackson of Slippery Rock, who wore a duennel dress. Her shoulder corsage was of Johanna Hill roses and mums.

David Weir of New Castle served the bridegroom as best man.

Immediately following the ceremony, a wedding dinner was served to 16 friends and relatives. The table was decorated with fall flowers and was centered with a four-tiered wedding cake.

Later, Mr. and Mrs. Kelly left on a wedding trip, their destination unknown. Upon their return they will reside at R. D. 7, New Castle.

Mrs. Kelly is a graduate of the Jameson Memorial nurses' training school and has been affiliated with that institution for two years. Mr. Kelly is employed at the National Radiator works.

MANY FRIENDS CALL ON DUNGANS TUESDAY

Several hundred friends called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Scowden, on East Clayton street, Tuesday afternoon and evening, to greet the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Dungan, of Newell avenue, on their golden wedding anniversary.

It was a happy affair indeed and was attended by friends and relatives of the couple from far and near. As the guests arrived they were received by Mr. and Mrs. Dungan and later invited to the dining room where the couple's daughters and granddaughters served a tasty lunch. The home was beautifully decorated with flowers sent by friends. One large box of beautiful mums had been sent from Los Angeles, California, by a daughter, Mrs. Edward Rhodes. Mrs. Rhodes, unable to be present at the anniversary occasion, telephoned her mother on Tuesday morning and gave her warm wishes by word of mouth. The message came through clearly and they had an enjoyable chat together.

Mr. and Mrs. Dungan received many beautiful gifts as souvenirs of their golden wedding day.

At noon yesterday, Mr. and Mrs. Herman E. Alexander, of West Cherry street, entertained at a dinner in honor of the couple. Miss Verlee Armstrong had prepared lovely place cards for the tables, attached to streamers and button chrysanthemums. The cards represented golden bells and in the center of each was a snapshot picture of Mr. Dungan and his wife.

Dinner guests included Dr. and Mrs. Henry L. Wells of Cambridge, O., Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Pickens, son, William and daughters, Miss Ella and Mrs. Harry Thornburn, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Pickens, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Pickens and son, William, all of Martins Ferry, O., and vicinity. Mrs. C. N. Moore gave a most interesting talk about her experiences in the state of Maine this summer at the meeting of the 20th Century Bible class, First Presbyterian church, held in the church parlors on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Miss Sara Knott, teacher of the class, whose birthday anniversary falls on Thursday, was presented with a beautiful bouquet of flowers by the class members.

Following, Mrs. J. J. McVaine took charge and various games were played. At the close of the evening a delicious lunch was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Joel S. McKee, chairman, Mrs. Thomas Smith, Mrs. H. H. Beck, Miss Nettie Wilson and Mrs. Sadie Angus.

The next meeting will be Tuesday, December 27, at the church.

Alpha Gamma Delta Alumnae
associates gathered in the home of Mrs. A. H. Borland, Garfield avenue, on Tuesday evening for their regular business meeting. Martha Leivo was associate hostess for the occasion. The house was beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums, the flowers being of various shades of yellow. Mrs. Robert Weingartner was in charge of the meeting.

Mrs. Ralph Cooper won high score for the bridge contests which followed, and at the conclusion of play, a delicious lunch was served.

The next meeting will be January 11 in New Wilmington in the form of a formal dinner party. Undergraduates will be special guests. The committee in charge includes Mrs. Robert Hoose, Miss Martha Leivo and Miss Mettie Rount.

West Side Needlecraft
Members of the West Side Needlecraft club, were entertained Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. E. Belknap, Albert street. A social period was enjoyed, with bingo providing the pastime. Mrs. Charles Rawlins and Mrs. George Fix, won the awards.

Lunch was served at a suitable hour by the hostess, with her granddaughter, Beatrice, aiding.

Their next meeting will take place in two weeks, the hostess to be announced.

Hi-Lo Bridge Club
Members of the Hi-Lo Bridge club will be entertained Friday in the home of Mrs. W. A. Hoy

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

DON'T SACRIFICE TOO MUCH

Thanksgiving Day is a good time to think about the gratitude of children toward their parents. We parents cannot gain the gratitude of our children by commanding it. We might, however, earn it, if we can keep from rendering them ungrateful unwares.

A few years ago I wrote in one of my books a chapter on Parents Who Make Themselves Their Children's Slaves. To quote a bit:

"How frequently there comes from parents the complaint that their children do not properly refer to them, honor or respect them! How often do we see evidence of such disrespect! What may surprise us most is that these parents who have made the greatest sacrifices for their children are the very ones whose children honor them the least."

Observe Pupils

"Go to a high school building and look upon an auditorium full of pupils. Observe the way the girls are dressed. Then try to picture all the mothers of those girls. Call to your mind the mothers who may choose to wear the hose and shoes and other clothes which their daughters count not good enough to wear. Call to your mind the scores of mothers bending over washbasins rubbing their daughters' garments, standing in the kitchen ironing their girls' dresses and pressing their sons' trousers. Then in your fancy hear some of those beautifully dressed young ladies, or those handsome lads, finding fault with their mothers for not having laundered the dress exactly right or for not having put the crease in the trousers the proper way."

If It's a Choice

"If it's a choice between a new coat this fall for mother or for daughter, mother wears last year's coat. If the parents have had an engagement for the evening, announced two weeks ago, and suddenly the daughter, who is counted on to stay with the baby, has an invitation to go out, out she goes."

"Mother and dad have planned to use the car this evening, but the boy of 16 wants it, and the parents stay at home so that their 'precious boy' will not be disappointed. Any day you can see a youngster six or eight years old on a trolley car sitting while his mother stands beside him holding to a strap."

If we would have our children honor and respect us, let us not do too much for them.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

IT CAN BE DONE

The State of California has become a catch-all for many thousands of worthless immigrants from other states. The Chambers of Commerce of Southern California have advertised day in and day out, month in and month out the wonderful climate of California, the wonderful fertility of its soil, the wonderful opportunities for making money. All of this has been a tremendous mistake, for to every person having money who has been attracted by these advertisements, there have been one hundred without money. If anyone should wonder why there are so many "crack pots" in this State, that is the answer.

However, every down-and-outer that comes to the State of California is not without merit. A family from the Middle West drove in about a month ago in a broken down automobile. They came from the East. One of the family was a boy about seventeen years of age. The family had not more than landed in San Diego when the boy started to find a job. He never stopped. He hopped it from store to store, from business house to business house for two weeks and at the end of two weeks he landed a job with the Humpty-Dumpty Stores, for sixteen dollars a week and he is going to keep that job. That boy is going a long way and his family is not on relief.

Another chap—a man about forty years of age, called at my house the other morning. He was dressed neatly in workmen's clothing and he handed me a card, on which was stated his name, his address and the fact that he repaired and sharpened any kind of tools particularly lawn mowers. I asked him how he was getting along. He said: "Well, I have not been in town very long, but I am getting enough work to enable me to pay my rent and living expenses for myself and family, and I expect to do much better." He is not on relief and let it be known that he is the first one to ever stop at my house offering to do any such kind of work and I have lived in that house for ten years.

There is no question about it: Men and women with energy and something to sell do not need relief or a W. P. A. job.

HINTS and DINTS

Sun sets tonight 4:30; sun rises tomorrow 6:55.

Scientists are going to try to do something about reducing noise. They can start right at horn blowing and the rattling of old cans on the streets.

It will cost the newspapers of this country $5,200,000 more for white paper next year than it did this year. This is in spite of the fact that millions are not working and plenty of wood to make paper out of. Something very much wrong with most everything these days.

THANKSGIVING

Praise ye the Lord. I will praise the Lord with my whole heart, in the assembly of the upright, and in the congregation.

His work is honorable and glorious. And His righteousness endureth forever.—Psalms III, 1-3.

A brand of whisky is now on the market labelled "My Friend." It was passed around quite liberally at the recent election, we were told by an old friend the other day.

The wife of the town's closest-fisted man was just back from a consultation with her doctor.

"And he tells me that I need a change of climate," she concluded, after relating other details of the conference.

"Don't worry, honey," soothed the husband. "Summer will soon be here."

We have noticed that those for whom a newspaper often does the most are the ones who give the newspaper a bump when they get a chance.

NOT AT ALL

John J. Observer says that the old-fashioned man thought nothing at all of walking 15 or 20 miles a day. The same man's son is just a chip off the old block, too, John says, thinking nothing of all of taking such a walk.

In an English town, superstitious Mrs. Neville Coleman refused to attend a dinner at which she would have been the 13th person, at her supper alone and was stricken with a fatal heart attack halfway through her meal.

There have been quite a few automobile smash-ups in the past few weeks. They often occur at street intersections. One man was found unconscious on Butler avenue evidently hit by a hit and run driver. Speeding and going too fast no doubt were the reasons for all of the accidents and crashes. Get after the speeders and fine them plenty!

The liquor bill for the United States was between three and four billion dollars in 1937. It don't say how many jags it produced.

There are only two or three guest rooms in the White House at Washington. The king and queen of England will have about forty in their party when they visit there next summer. Some of them will have to sleep on the foot of the bed.

It is said that curiosity and special pressure are the prime reasons for the drinking of liquor. Enough of it will paralyze the curiosity of any one and the social pressure will also receive a jolt.

What is your unbiased opinion of the New Deal? But never mind; there aren't any such opinions.

Tomorrow night's the night. We mean the policeman's ball at the Cathedral. Have you bought your ticket yet? The money goes to the police pension fund. You will be helping a fine cause by buying a ticket.

Don't keep on telling her you are unworthy of her. Let it be a surprise.

HE GOT IT
"What reason have you for wanting a raise?" asked the boss. "If you can give me two good ones, you'll get a boost in pay."

The clerk was silent a moment. Then he smiled.

"Twins," was his answer.

They've improved the talk in the talks, but so a ponderous singing in a crowd. Italian, too, very soft and low, doesn't sound like a band of Sioux Indians on the warpath.

Willie ate the drumsticks. But Willie's And dumb He hoped that when He ran about He'd rattle Like a drum!

Now we are told a modern tailor is able to transform any male into a well dressed man. Brand new personality can be given by judicious use of shears. Some ought to at least try it.

Sixty-one people in the United States made a million dollars in 1936. It must have been a good year for them.

Good Taste

Ignorance as to proper conduct at dance parties is one of the commonest factors in the process of losing popularity. If you are fortunate enough to be invited to numerous dances do not spoil your chances of receiving further invitations by refusing to dance with one man and afterward accepting another man's request for the same dance. When you decline you should have a very good excuse and not make it obvious that your refusal was for personal reasons.

Reader's Question Answered
Dear Miss Markel—What is the difference between a formal and an informal buffet supper?—Mrs. C.

Answer—Attendants do the serving at a formal buffet supper, guests standing and waiting to be helped. The guests wear formal evening clothes, invitations being formal and engraved.

At an informal buffet supper guests help themselves to whatever they wish—a napkin, silver, plates and such foods from the serving tables as they desire. Usually the men guests serve the women guests. Invitations to an informal buffet supper may be issued verbally or by telephone. Or they may be written on the hostess' visiting cards.

Roper Will Not Quit Cabinet
Refuses To Give Hopkins Break
Administration Is Embarrassed

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Columnist

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 23.—Indications are that President Roosevelt will have to put at least a giant firecracker under Commerce Secretary Daniel C. Roper in order to get the latter out of his cabinet, thus creating a vacancy for WPA Chief Harry P. Hopkins to be boosted into. Roper is not a bit like Attorney General Homer S. Cummings, who is quitting voluntarily—plus because he can make more money practicing law privately and needs to do so. Daniel C.'s salary is entirely satisfactory to him and his job is altogether to his liking. True, there have been rumors that the administration thinks of "promoting" him into the ambassadorship to Russia, but it's more than suspected that these reports are of White House origin and are intended as hints to the secretary in question.

Roper, however, shows no signs of acting on them. Moscow probably isn't a post he hankers for. If anyone less adapted than himself to shine in Communist society could be suggested, it's hard to think of him. Daniel has the diplomatic quality of friendliness and affability, besides the gift of making a large number of remarks without saying anything. He can wear a dress suit to perfection. There are socially classy embassies and legations which he would fit into excellently. But no such embassy offers a vacancy at present, and it would be undignified for a cabinet member to be fobbed off into a mere petty location.

HE WOULDN'T LIKE IT

As for Moscow, in addition to being genuinely important, they say that folks there attend swell functions in nothing much more stylish than overalls. Roper wouldn't do in such surroundings and he knows it. The administration doubtless knows it also, but doesn't care, being so anxious to get rid of Daniel. The nub of it is that Dan knows it too, and he does care.

Nevertheless, how provide adequately for Harry Hopkins?

Harry isn't professionally equipped for the attorney generalship. Solicitor General Robert H. Jackson will get that. Equally is Harry unsuitable for the supreme court vacancy. He isn't a lawyer; he's a welfare worker.

A little private appointment wouldn't do for him. He must have something of cabinet proportions.

He's mentioned for the war portfolio, but there's no certainty that Secretary Harry H. Woodring is retiring. If he does retire, Assistant Secretary Louis Johnson is his natural successor. Secretary of the Navy Claude A. Swanson, a very sick man, may drop out at any minute. But Assistant Secretary Charles Edison will be hard to overlook to follow him. There are plenty of demands for Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins' resignation, but she doesn't notice them. Even if she did, there would be a howl for ex-Assistant Edward P. McGrady to replace her.

Secretary of State Hull is as solid as Gibraltar. Treasury Secretary Henry Morgenthau, Jr., Interior Secretary Harold I. Ickes and Agriculture Secretary Henry A. Wallace seem substantially fixed, despite lots of criticisms.

Furthermore, Hopkins has had no more training for the treasury, war or navy departments than you, dear reader of L. C. W. I myself came from Iowa, as Harry did, but I'm no agricultural expert, neither is he. He may have a little dope on labor or interior departmental problems; still, those avenues likewise appear to be barricaded against him.

HARRY'S COMMERCIAL ACUMEN
To save my life I can't see that Harry Hopkins knows anything worth mentioning as to interstate and foreign commerce.

Presumably Daniel C. Roper doesn't either.

Roper just is a competent politician. Maybe Hopkins is more competent than Roper is. The administration evidently thinks so. So it wants that job, to operate from.

Roper selfishly hangs onto it. He's a nuisance—to some very irritated persons.

What Noted People Say

NEW YORK—Deputy Mayor Henry H. Curran:

"I do not believe that Hitler can abolish Jehovah and Isaiah and Jeremiah. Those whom the gods would destroy, they must first make mad."

LONDON—Sir Samuel Hoare discussing the refugee problem resulting from persecution of minorities in Germany:

HOLLYWOOD—Bob Burns, humorist and actor:

The Great Game Of Politics

By FRANK R. KENT

(Copyright, 1938)

The Grynspan Fund

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.

THE movement started by Dorothy Thompson to raise funds to insure adequate defense of the penniless young Jew whose killing of the German attaché in Paris was the signal for an outbreak of inhuman reprisals against Jews in Germany is of great significance and importance. It promises more effectively to serve the cause of tolerance and drive bigotry under cover than any other effort that has been made in this country.

CERTAINLY it affords an opportunity to make more effectively clear American reaction to the ruthless cruelty of the Nazi course than could be done in any other way. The swift response to Miss Thompson's appeal is proof that the spirit of democracy in this country will not permit its people calmly to sit by and watch the brutal oppression of defenseless minorities anywhere.

Wholely aside from governmental attitude and the exigencies of national and international politics, when the time comes that in the democratic countries there is no spontaneous popular outburst against the sort of thing that occurred in Germany after the Paris shooting, then indeed democracy is a dead letter in the world. When the time comes that without resentment, the free peoples of the earth can see men and women beaten, robbed, killed, driven from their homes and deprived of their liberty solely because of their religious beliefs and their racial strains, then the whole democratic cause is a fake and a fraud. When that time comes the decadence of democracy will be too clear to dispute. We might as well fold up and quit.

To join in this movement to provide Grynspan with a good lawyer and an open trial emphatically does not indicate a desire to go to war with Germany. Nor does it involve a defense of assassination. Either idea is a travesty of sound foundation. So far as the Jews are concerned, it is a voluntary expression of horror by individuals whom the Government cannot control, and with whom the Government has not the remotest connection—and hence no responsibility. It cannot be construed in any other way. Those who inaugurated the movement and those who are joining it do not want to go to war with anyone, but they would feel contempt for themselves if, under the circumstances, they remained silent and inactive.

AS for the second, the argument that assassination should not be sanctioned—the answer is that, of course, it should not and that that is not in any way suggested or proposed. It is all that is proposed is that a fund be raised that will enable this 17-year-old boy at least to have his case adequately presented at a public hearing—that will make it impossible for him to be railroaded to the guillotine as a result of secret sessions of an intimidated court. After all, this is not an ordinary case but a cause celebre. The prosecutor will be the great German Government, with the army, terror and its heaviest diplomatic instruments applying pressure. The defendant is a miserable, penniless refugee war.

ALREADY the movement started by Miss Thompson has been instrumental in having the French abandon the idea of a court-martial and decide

Two New Streamlined B. & O. Trains Will Pass Near Here During Night

NEW STREAMLINED CAPITOL LIMITED

Two of the queens of American railroad transportation, the new streamlined Capitol Limited trains of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, east and westbound, will be in New Castle Junction just after midnight. Number 6, eastbound from Chicago to Washington will be at the junction at 12:40 a. m. and No. 5, westbound from Washington to Chicago will be in at 1:20 a. m. They will pass somewhere in the vicinity of Edenburg.

The two stream lined trains, both hauled by Diesel engines, leave Washington and Chicago this afternoon. In Washington No. 5 was christened by Tallulah Bankhead, famous American actress.

With rounded roofs and deep skirting on the sides the streamlined

Capitol Limited now carries out from end to end the striking blue, gray and gold color scheme which has been so much admired on the B. & O.'s streamliners operating between Washington and New York.

The interior of the train is modernistic in furnishing and decoration. Chromium finish metal furniture is used in club and observation cars, the chairs and lounges being deeply upholstered in sponge rubber, covered with gay shades of leather and other fabrics. The sleeping cars are upholstered in rich, new patterns in the lighter shades of green and brown, and pastel tones are used for the side walls and ceilings.

Of special moment is the train's new "luminous" system of lighting. This is accomplished by the use of heavy, ground-glass bull's eyes, which cover the lighting clusters, and panels and prevent all glare, but bring a diffused glow of unusually high candle power at reading distance. One of the most attractive innovations is the soft chime signal for calling porters that does away with the loud electric bell.

To meet the popular demand for privacy in train travel, an unusually large number of bedrooms, compartments and drawing rooms—some of these en suite for family travel—have been provided. The latest model radios are at the disposal of passengers in both club and observation cars. Barber-wait and maid service is continued on the trains, as is also the service of a train secretary without charge.

Shapiro Will Be Floor Leader In State Senate

Named By Democrats In Caucus — Cavalcante Is Runner-up

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, Nov. 23.—Sen. Harry Shapiro of Philadelphia will be the Democratic floor leader during the 1939 session of the legislature, it appeared today, following a caucus in which he was chosen to head the Democratic forces in the upper house.

Sen. Anthony Cavalcante, Fayette Democrat, was runner-up in the voting and was expected to become Democratic "whip" in the new senate.

In addition it was expected Cavalcante would be selected to head an important committee in the event the Democrats organize the senate.

The lineup in the 1939 senate is 28 Democrats and 24 Republicans. Despite this, Republicans assert they will obtain sufficient votes to elect a Republican president pro tem. It is he who appoints committee members and designates committee chairmen.

In the event the Democrats organize the senate, Sen. John S. Rice, the present floor leader, will become president pro tem.

ELECTION COST IN ALLEGHENY COUNTY IS SET AT $103,980

(International News Service) PITTSBURGH, Nov. 23.—Each of the 500,000 ballots cast in the November 8 election in Allegheny county cost the taxpayers about two-tenths of a cent apiece, the county election bureau reported today. The total cost of the election was $103,980. The greatest part, $60,000, went to pay for the wages of election board members.

to have an open one. Moro Goefert, one of the greatest defense lawyers in France, has been engaged and the costs of the trial guaranteed by the Thompson committee, whose only purpose is to provide the best possible legal advice for a helpless and impoverished boy, and to insist upon the right of every human soul to defend his case before an unimpaired court.

REGARDLESS of the outcome of the trial, there are a number of reasons why this movement will get results. One is because it is so wholly voluntary, spontaneous and unorganized; another, because it is so completely separated from politics, administration and government; another, because it is a completely non-Jewish movement. Not only are there no Jews connected with it but not a nickel has been—or will be—received from any Jew. There are two obvious reasons for this—first, because if Jews were permitted to contribute it might be used as an excuse for further reprisals; second, because the fact that the expenses of the counsel for this boy are paid by non-Jews will tend toward rendering the trial atmosphere less tense from a racial and religious standpoint.

IN addition, whatever the penalty imposed, it is important that the background of the boy and the things which impelled him to the act be fully presented not only to the court but to the world. This can only be done at a public trial and through a competent and fearless lawyer. It is to the interest of Nazi Germany that they not be thus presented; it is to the interests of those who believe in democratic principles that they should be. The whole idea of this fund is to insure that they will be. In any event, the more certain it is that the full truth will come out, that justice will be done and the court be unbullied. Those who would like to promote these things in a particularly effective way should send their contributions—anything from $1 up—to Dorothy Thompson, 730 Fifth avenue, New York city.

Germany's top generals have been liquidated. They said Germany wasn't ready for war, and Hitler can't bear anybody who disputes his friend Chamberlain.

GETTINGS-TINDALL EVENT THIS MORNING

Among the interesting social events of the Thanksgiving season was the marriage of Miss Alice Matilda Gettings, daughter of Samuel and the late Nannie V. Gettings, R. D. 4, New Castle, and John Earl Francis Tindall, son of Mrs. McKimley Shaffer, R. D. 7, New Castle, which took place this morning in the parsonage of the Center U. P. church.

Rev. B. M. Wallace, pastor of the church, officiated with the single ring ceremony. An interesting fact is that the bride's parents were married in this same home 50 years ago. The bride was attired in a navy blue tailored suit with matching accessories. Her flowers were a shoulder corsage of pink roses and baby breath. Her only attendants were the bride's father and the groom's mother. The latter wore black lace and her flowers were pink roses.

The bride attended Harlansburg high school and the bridegroom is a graduate of Shenango high school in the class of '35. He is now affiliated with the People's Drug company.

Mr. and Mrs. Tindall have dispensed with a wedding trip for the present and will be "at home" in their newly furnished apartment at 119 North Crawford avenue, this city.

A wedding dinner for the immediate families was served at noon at the bride's home and this evening a reception will be held.

Wedding Anniversary

A memorable occasion in the lives of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lipp, 143 West Glenaven avenue, Youngstown, O., took place on Friday, November 18, when they observed their 60th wedding anniversary with a family dinner at noon at a tea room on the Racoon road.

In the evening, from 7 until 9 o'clock, they observed "open house" for all relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Lipp were assisted in receiving by their children, Harry Lipp of Salem, O., Mrs. Minnie Bye, Misses Margaret and Lillian Lipp of Youngstown, Curtis and Lloyd Lipp of Petersburg, O., Oscar Lipp of Enon Valley, and Park Lipp of New Springfield, O.

Following the "open house" hours, all of their grandchildren and their families gathered to wish them many many more happy years together. Afterwards, several musical selections were presented in a program. At a late hour, the guests adjourned to the basement where a delicious lunch was served.

Mr. Lipp is 82 years of age and Mrs. Lipp is 80. They have 27 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

Training Class Meets

Members of the Teachers Training class of the First Baptist church met with Margaret Porteous, 233 West Moody avenue, on Tuesday evening with Miss Sarah Dandy co-hostess. There were 18 present and the group worked on scrap books to be sent to Beulah Heaton in the Philippine Islands. Plans were also made to pack a basket for Christmas. Florence Williams and Frances Booser will be in charge of this.

Following, various games were played and prizes awarded to Lucille Lynch, Marie Johnson, Frances Booser and Betty Ayres. A lunch was served at a large table and a small one. A Thanksgiving theme predominated in the appointments and turkey favors, made of apples, marked each place.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Ina Gardner of the Butler road on Friday, December 16, with Weltha Johnson as joint hostess. A gift exchange will feature the meeting.

G. K. W. Meeting

Mrs. Cyrus Dickson entertained members of the G. K. W. club at her home on East Washington street on Tuesday evening. A special guest was Mrs. R. E. Johnson.

Cards were the main pastime and at a later hour, the hostess served a tasty lunch and she was assisted by Mrs. E. R. Johnson and Mrs. Anna Hunter.

Mrs. Thomas Boston will receive members of the club at her home on Park avenue on December 7.

Midnight Show

At Regent; "God's Stepchildren"

In Tuesday's advertisement of the Regent Theatre, it was stated that the picture, "God's Stepchildren," with an all star colored cast, would be shown starting Thursday, Thanksgiving Day. This should have read, "Midnight Show, Nov. 23rd at 12 o'clock."

The screen attraction for Thanksgiving Day at the Regent will feature Gene Autry in "Rhythm of the Saddle," also the "Three Stooges."

Stock Yard Strike Still In Progress

Threat Of General Strike In Stockyards Is Heard At Chicago

STOCK PENS ARE VIRTUALLY EMPTY

By CHESTER YOUNG
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—Until their controversy with the Union Stockyard & Transit company is settled, striking CIO union stock handlers declared today, no more animals will be permitted to go through the yards to the packing plants.

O. T. Henkle, vice president and general manager of the strike bound company, defiantly replied to the union ultimatum:

"We have been in business 65 years. We are going to continue to do business. We will not allow the animals to starve."

Threat of General Labor Holiday
Henkle's statement brought the threat of a general labor holiday at the yards, the world's greatest livestock market, from Benjamin Brown, president of the striking union.

If the yards, Brown said, "attempt to resume operations with scrub labor a strike of from 18,000 to 20,000 workers in the packing plants will be called."

Five of the smaller packing plants signed CIO contracts last summer, Brown said, and he asserted their workers would refuse to butcher any stock handled by non-CIO yardmen.

Brown's statement was directed at an A. P. of L. stock handlers' union as well as the company.

Claims Men For His Union

Thomas Devero, business agent of the A. P. of L. union, claims a majority of the 585 stock handlers for his union, and stated they would return to work if policemen on guard in the yards were removed.

"Our men don't want to work under the eyes of policemen," Devero said today. "We can protect ourselves. We'll be ready for work any time from now on."

The A. P. of L. men were scheduled to meet today to decide their course of action.

If an attempt is made to resume operations, it was feared violence would result.

The stock pens were virtually empty today, and the usual din made by the lowing, grunting and bawling animals being shunted from railroad cars and trucks to feeding pens, to sales pens, to weighing platforms and to packing houses was hushed.

Under an agreement with the strikers, white collared salesmen and commission firm members pitched in yesterday and unloaded, fed and watered, weighed and sold the stock, disposing of accumulated receipts of 20,000 cattle, 37,000 hogs and 11,000 sheep.

Sodality Club Enjoys Party

Group Has Thanksgiving Event
In St. Lucy's Church
Auditorium

An enjoyable Thanksgiving party was held Monday evening, when members of the Immaculate Conception Sodality club gathered in the hall of St. Lucy's church.

This was the annual affair for the sodality and bingo and music, along with games, were the main diversions of the hours. Prizes were awarded to Margaret Domencik and Mary C. Russo.

At an appointed time a delicious luncheon was served. Thanksgiving decorations were used in the hall by the decorating committee.

Plans were made for the girls of the club to have a banquet in honor of their mothers on December 11.

Those who were on the committee to help make the party a success were: Florence Rainey, Rose Leon, Rose DeGennaro, Elvira Thomas, Anna Rainey, Angelina Laszaro, Mary Hope Domencik, Mary Sperdute, Mary Russo, Florence Ezze, Phil DeFerio and Jean LaMarco.

Dinner Enjoyed By C. E. Society

Song Fest Is Feature Of Successful Social Event In Christian Church

One of the most successful social functions held in sometime by members of the Christian Endeavor society of the Madison Avenue Christian church was held Tuesday evening in the church basement.

A delicious turkey dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock by the social committee. During the course of the dinner a song fest was a feature of the event. Walter Evans, superintendent of the church Sunday school department, was leader for the vocal selections.

Following the dinner, the group held the monthly business meeting. Plans were made for a skating party on December 6. A varied program of games was provided for entertainment during the remaining hours by Miss Thelma Bumbush.

Committee in charge of the party included Grace Kelly, Ann Evans and Myrtice Jones.

Next meeting will be in charge of the social committee and will be held in the church on Tuesday, December 20.

The A. P. of L. men were scheduled to meet today to decide their course of action.

If an attempt is made to resume operations, it was feared violence would result.

Dr. Bennett Tells Work Of New Board

Kiwanis Hears Minister Discuss
New Public Agencies
Group

Members of the Kiwanis club learned this afternoon of the work of the recently organized Lawrence County Board of Public Agencies, when Dr. G. S. Bennett, pastor of the First Christian church and secretary of the board, spoke at their weekly luncheon in the Castleton.

Dr. Bennett told the club that in its six months of operation, the board, in various ways, has saved Lawrence county and New Castle, "considerable money."

Investigation of special relief and WPA cases and carefully check-ups on undesirable transients from other states has formed the bulk of the board's work. Twice monthly the group meets for five-hour conference to review cases.

Dr. Bennett announced that legal attaches of the board soon will go into county court to determine whether or not it has the right to expel from this county undesirable transients who have drifted here from other states.

He reported that a group of allegedly undesirable transients have defied board orders to move on, and said that "we plan to make a court test of it."

On December 13, there will be a grain exhibit under the direction of Ceres. The committee will consist of Anna May Munn, Jennie Whiting, Muri Simon, D. M. Baird, Elizabeth Johnson, assisted by the Master, W. N. Robinson.

Pomona Master and Mrs. W. S. Fullerton were special guests at the meeting last evening.

GIRL SCOUTS

TRIOOP 5
Members of Troop 5 held a meeting on Thursday in the basement of the Croton M. E. church. The meeting was opened with the Virginia Reel and square dancing.

Patrol corners were held and after a brief business session, a delicious luncheon was served by the tenderfoot girls. Later, the girls sang songs and games were played. The girls sang taps and the meeting came to a close with "Good Night, Ladies."

The next meeting will be held on December 1.

Scribe, Elaine Haydon.

TRIOOP SIX MEETS
Girl Scout Troop Six members held a regular meeting Monday afternoon in the Highland school building.

A discussion of future activities for the troop was the main topic of business. Patrol meetings were held and suggestions for a Christmas party worked out.

Games were played and songs were sung, followed by the singing of Taps to bring the meeting to a close.

A short Court of Honor session took place after the meeting.

Scribe, Patricia Kradel.

TRIOOP 11
Girl Scouts of the Sakakawa troop held their weekly meeting on last Wednesday at the Rhodes Mission. The girls went through the regular routine and committees were appointed for a coming party. The girls learned to dance the Virginia Reel and songs and playlets took up a part of the meeting.

Shirley McMichael and Alma Edie passed their tenderfoot tests. Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Mercer were guests.

Saturday afternoon the troop met at The News Office where Bart Richards showed them around the plant and explained the different steps involved before a newspaper is ready for sale. The girls saw many interesting things and each received an evening paper and a piece of lead with her name on it.

Upon leaving The News Office the girls went to the Central Fire department. Here they saw how well the fire trucks are equipped and how the alarms come in. Then they were shown the rest of the building.

Scribe, Luella Badger.

AT CROTON SCHOOL
"Thanksgiving" was the theme carried out at the Croton school Girl Scouts meeting, Tuesday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, at the school.

Under the direction of Miss Leona Sankow and Miss Dorothy Patch, Thanksgiving Day decorations were made by the group. The singing of "Thanksgiving Day" songs followed, with Miss Patch in charge.

OLDER GIRLS MEET
Older Girls group of Girl Scout Troop 21 held a meeting at the home of Miss Marilyn Murphy, Highland Heights, Tuesday evening. The girls were instructed in knitting sweaters by Mrs. Nelson McCluskey and Mrs. Richard Morgan.

Plans were made for the girls to meet in the homes of the scouts in the future. Next meeting will be on November 29, in the home of Alice Reynolds, Wilmington road.

Scribe, Dawn Gibson.

TRIOOP 8
Sakakawa Troop 8 held a meeting Tuesday evening in the First U. P. church. The girls played hand baseball, two deep and stage-coach. They were directed by Edis Norris, Marjorie Howe and Dulcie Gullford, who are working for their game badges.

The girls then went to their patrol corners where they transacted business.

Scribe, Jane Roberts.

TRIOOP 22
Girl Scouts of Troop 22 held their regular meeting in the Highland U. P. church on Tuesday. After the meeting was called to order, Mrs. Thomas I. Elliot, the scoutleader, announced that a trail had been laid. The girls started and, much to their surprise, they were led to the New Castle Public Library.

The girls were conducted through different sections of the library by Miss Alice Sterling, the trip proving most enjoyable.

Scribe, Elizabeth Burton.

Mayor Is Much Improved After Trip To Oakland

Mayor Charles E. McGrath is home, 10 pounds stouter for his several weeks respite from the arduous duties as mayor of the city. He said he feels fine, the rest having done him much good.

While in Oakland, Calif., the city manager placed an auto and driver at the disposal of Mayor Charles E. McGrath and the supervisors of Alameda county, Calif., invited him to occupy the reviewing stand during the Armistice day parade.

He was gone almost three weeks and during his stay in Oakland kept in touch with the city through the New Castle News which reached him daily.

Joseph Solomon Admitted To Bar

Before Judge Thomas W. Dickey on Tuesday afternoon Attorney Joseph Solomon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Solomon of 1505 S. Pennsylvania avenue, was admitted to the Lawrence County bar and is now a practicing attorney affiliated with the firm of Brown and Wallace.

Attorney Solomon is a graduate of New Castle high school, class of 1925, of Geneva college, class of 1931, and of the law school of the University of Pittsburgh, class of 1938.

Following the age old custom, Mr. Solomon was sworn and then handed Court Clerk Clifford Vance a silver dollar.

Prisoner Arrested Here Makes Threats; Held For Inquiry

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Nov. 23.—Held on a district attorney's detainer, Nicholas Kmetek, was back in jail again today awaiting a sanity test here by two physicians. He was brought here from Springfield, Mo., following completion of a federal term for counterfeiting.

District Attorney Andrew T. Park obtained the detainer, acting, he said, to protect society and "especially the police authorities" from an ex-convict described as "intent on revenge." Kmetek was arrested at New Castle, Pa., for passing bogus $10 and $20 bills in Lawrence county.

Federation Probation Officer George O'Brien told Park Kmetek threatened dire results for police. Park went before Judge P. P. Patterson, told him that if Kmetek is given his freedom he might commit serious crimes here and obtained the detainer.

Kmetek was convicted in federal court here in 1935 on the counterfeit charge and was sentenced to three and a half years in Northeastern penitentiary. He was later removed to Springfield after he was found to be mentally defective.

'Y' Club Leaders Organize Council

Pick First Officers At Meeting
Last Night; Hear
Speakers

Clayton Hoffmaster of Union township high school was chosen first president of the Hi-Y division and Alvin Brown of Rose avenue school named first president of the Gra-Y division of the newly formed School-Y. M. C. A. Community council when the council convened in the "Y" last night.

Twenty-three faculty leaders of Hi-Y and Gra-Y clubs from various schools attended the organization rally and heard Dr. G. S. Bennett, pastor of the First Christian church, and Superintendent of Schools C. C. Green speak.

Dr. Bennett inspired the adult boys' leaders with his message on "What Constitutes Christian Leadership?" while Dr. Green discussed "Leadership From an Educational Standpoint."

Assistant General Secretary Henry T. McPherson and Boys' Work Director John D. Thompson participated in the program.

Chosen to officiate in the two different divisions besides Hoffmaster and Brown were the following:

Hi-Y division—Herman Kitchen, junior class Hi-Y leader, vice president; Charles Burton, senior class Hi-Y club, secretary-treasurer.

Gra-Y division—Miss Elizabeth Richardson of Lincoln-Garfield school, secretary-treasurer. They named no vice president.

The Hi-Y group, in separate session, set Sunday, December 11, for the annual induction service of new Hi-Y boys of the county, and chose Central Presbyterian church here as the place. The December Older Boys' conference in Oil City was discussed, and council officers were named as a committee to plan a Hi-Y rally for December.

The Gra-Y leaders set up a meeting schedule running up to January 7. Two rallies are planned.

John P. Boyles, chairman of the activities committee of the Y. M. C. A. board of directors, acted as chairman of the joint meeting.

The council meets next January 31.

To the Stockholders of the Lawrence County Agricultural Association

A number of stockholders of the Lawrence County Agricultural Association after several impromptu meetings have formed a stockholders' committee for the purpose, if possible, to persuade the Board of Directors of the Association to secure a new more liberal and progressive management.

This committee believes that an entirely new management is absolutely necessary for the survival of the Association and for the complete fulfillment of the purposes for which the Association was organized.

There is positively no reason why the Lawrence County Agricultural Association cannot give Lawrence County a real fair.

Many other attractions in addition to the annual three or four days fair can be arranged throughout every month of the year that would produce sufficient revenue to offer and pay premiums that will secure equality of agriculture and stock equal to any in the state.

No member of this committee desires to be directors or to have any position with the Association, but they are ready and willing to lend any assistance in making the Association a success and credit to the City of New Castle and Lawrence County.

There is no individual or group endeavoring to secure control of the Association or possession of the Association's property for personal use, as intimated in a statement mailed the stockholders and type signed by the Secretary of the Association.

This committee knowing that the Junior Chamber of Commerce are always interested in community matters, approached them on the above recommendations, and after a full investigation they fully approved the actions of this committee and have offered their assistance and their facilities to make the Association a real success.

Shirley, who'll be 10 next April, loves to make pictures.

People ask how long she'll continue.

"Just as long as Shirley enjoys making pictures." Mrs. Temple answers. "And just as long as people want to go to see her, she will go on in pictures, but not for a single moment more."

And what if Shirley should cease to enjoy movie work?

"That depends on Shirley, too," says the mother. "George Murphy and Bill Robinson consider her a great dancer. She might want to become a dancer. She likes to draw, too, and for that reason might want to become an artist. At all events, it's a problem for Shirley to decide when the time comes."

There's one thing absolutely certain, however. Shirley wants to quit her home income to take the very best care of herself for the rest of her life. Her parents have seen to it's proper investment, for Shirley and not for themselves.

Thanksgiving Day services in Trinity church, at the corner of North Mill and East Falls streets, will be two: 7:30 a. m., the holy communion; 10 a. m., the service appointed in the Book of Common Prayer and resumed in Episcopal churches, with short sermon by the pastor, followed by the custom of many years, this service will be over at 11 a. m., thus giving ample time for people to enjoy the family reunions of the day, and to prepare for them. This service is different from the ordinary services in Episcopal churches and is for an appropriate religious program, a combination of selections heard at any other time. They will be rendered by the senior choir with Miss Isabel T. Johnson at the organ.

Gallstones are scientifically known as biliary calculi.

Biliary from bile—calculi meaning solid concretions.

Gallstones are found usually in biliary passages or gallbladder.

They are formed from bile become stagnant or abnormal.

They range in size from tiny grains to that of birds' eggs.

Diseased torpids, sinusitis and appendix may affect the gallbladder.

The infection is carried there via blood stream and the bile.

Wooly, sandy habits may also cause gallstones.

The first indication of gallstones is indigestion.

The gallbladder removed surgically is not missed.

It is but a reservoir for the bile in the system.

"Make everybody happy with a happiness package" is the slogan adopted by the local postal authorities. The idea, which originated with a woman postmaster in a country town, is to be pushed all during the holiday season until Christmas. Postmaster Stoen said. Chambers of commerce and local merchants in the cities are competing in this new movement. Washington advises state.

To a countrywoman in the little town of Winthrop, N. Y., almost on the Canadian line, goes credit for the "happiness package" slogan which has leaped into national attention and advertising space overnight. She is Mrs. Ada J. Polson, assistant postmaster of Winthrop, and the idea was born of her experience of the yearning of the average small town and farm resident, particularly the wives, for a package, especially one that comes to her as a surprise.

SHARON, Pa., Nov. 23.—Inspired by a message from Dr. Robert F. Galbreath, president of Westminster college, the sales army of the 15th annual Shenango Valley Community Fund drive started their work in Valley towns with a goal of $63,875 to be reached by next Tuesday night.

"Your task," Dr. Galbreath told the workers, "is not a beggar's task. Rather, it is one of opening the door of opportunity to each individual to share in a work of human kindness."

Our Mr. Pils is giving our national kettle no privacy whatever. It needs privacy. Consider periods of history in which there was great individualism and a great upsurge of genius—Greece, Byzantium, the Adamic city-states, the Italian renaissance, Elizabethan England and 19th century England of Emerson, Thoreau, Whitlitter and Longfellow. These cultures just boiled up, without any body lifting the lid every 15 minutes to see if they were bubbling. But today, even such ancient bubbling as swing music and the Susy-Q or the Shag has the operatically pandorums of arts and sciences stewing and worrying and watching the steam-gauge. Self-

Through the Middle West, modernism acquires a strong new momentum and shared news centers are predicting its smoldering combustion. Interference with casual bending has been cited as a class assault on traditional habits, but inferior people, fixating up their defenses, are doing a job of wasteful rationalizing in their their poster with morals, discipline, sound tradition and solemn society. An earlier day just took liquor for granted, and came how out of it.

Bette Davis.

Which means that she and her husband, Harmon Nelson, world-traveler, to whom she has been married more than six years, have decided not to come back from their marital vacation.

Then she sent the message in the form of a telegram, to some of her newspaper friends.

Last September, she confirmed rumors that the marriage was on the rocks when she sent a similar telegram to the same friends, stating:

"Harm and I have definitely decided to take a vacation from each other."

Dr. Dafoe's Column On The Quintuplets And The Care Of Your Children

Copyright 1938, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

TAKE CARE OF BABY'S TEETH

This is the third of a series of four articles on the teeth.

It is the duty of modern dentistry to make the natural teeth last a lifetime, and to prepare people for false teeth at middle age.

The best way to start this is to see that care is taken of your child's baby teeth. Too many people attach little or no importance to these first teeth. If their child's teeth decay, and fall out, they say, "What's the odds. Baby's new teeth will come in soon."

Nothing could be more foolish than this attitude and the parent who says that doesn't know that the permanent teeth depend a great deal on the first teeth; they form the base of the baby teeth are dis- covered, the mouth then becomes a hot house of infection that will spread poison throughout the whole body. They close their eyes to the fact that if a child loses its teeth before its permanent ones are ready to come through, it may change the whole shape of the little one's face. The teeth of themselves are very interesting organs, if we may so refer to them. Above the gum, the part you can see is called the crown; buried in the jawbone are the roots; where the root and crown join at the gum line is the neck.

The crown of the tooth is covered with a substance called enamel. It is not actually a bone but it is harder than any bone in the body and protects the rest of the tooth from injury and decay. Underneath the enamel is the dentine, a softer bone. Decay spreads rapidly in this den- tine. But decay cannot get in so long as the enamel is kept clean, and whole. The trouble comes when decay eats a hole in this enamel, or when some injury makes a crack in it.

At the end of each root of the tooth is a small opening containing blood vessels and nerve cells. These blood vessels and nerves are pro- tected by the pulp of the tooth and it is through them that the tooth receives its nourishment; lime, phosphorus which enables the tooth to resist decay.

When a tooth aches, that is a sign that something has gone wrong. Usually it means that decay has eaten away the protection the nerve must have; in any event the suf- ferer should see his dentist without delay.

People often think of the tooth as something directly connected with the bone in the jaw. This isn't the case; for the tooth is held into place in the jaw by a layer of tissue which also acts as a cushion.

Another careless belief is that with so many teeth in the mouth the loss of two or three is of no importance. Let me impress on you parents, that your child needs every tooth that nature put into his head. Each tooth has a different shape be- cause it has different work to do in the business of chewing. The front teeth cut the food like scis- sors; cuspsids tear the food; molars are grinders.

Molars shouldn't worry if when their child is five years of age spaces begin to appear between the teeth. This is just a sign that the jaw is growing. In fact if the spaces weren't there, then there would be cause for worry. For if the spaces aren't wide enough, there will be crowding when the perma- nent teeth appear, with the attend- ant danger that they will come in crooked.

Governor Earle Makes Denial Of Graft Allegations

Chief Executive Gives Testimony

Appears Before House Probers On Tuesday Afternoon For First Time

TO CONTINUE AS WITNESS TODAY

By J. WILLIAM THEIS
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

HARRISBURG, Nov. 23.—Gov. George H. Earle's seven-month battle against graft charges was climaxed today with his blunt denial of the allegations, given them verbally for the first time under oath.

With two and a half hours of his testimony already in the house investigating committee's voluminous record, the governor was to return to the witness stand again this morning.

Governor's Replies

To the accusations brought by his former attorney general, Charles J. Margiotti, the governor replied in summary that:

1.—He had not participated in, and had no knowledge of, alleged pay-roll making, "kickbacks" to extort political funds in return for state business, favoritism on contracts, or attempts to "cover up" fraud in the Erie "gravel scandal."

2.—He had opposed Matthew H. McCloskey, Philadelphia Democrat, and contractor, bidding on general state authority projects because it was "too much like the Republicans and might be misinterpreted."

3.—Margiotti had asked him to name the late John J. Verona, former Pittsburgh Republican leader, as secretary of the Liquor Control Board. This, he said, he refused to do.

"Pushing" Verona

4.—He deliberately kept the Erie "gravel report" out of Margiotti's hands for a time because Margiotti had been "pushing" Verona and the Pioneer Materials Company, gravel firm, held guilty of furnishing sub-standard gravel to the Highway Department. Verona has been named as a representative of the company.

5.—Margiotti's own Pittsburgh law firm investigated the gravel matter and reported to the governor there was "no evidence of mis-conduct which would warrant criminal prosecution." This agreed with Maj. Lynn G. Adams' state police findings on the so-called "scandal" in which Chief Highway Engineer H. H. Temple and District Engineer E. A. Griffith were dismissed.

As Mrs. Earle, the governor's eldest son, and an audience that filled the house chamber looked on, Governor Earle explained that he had "assumed" McCloskey would not bid on state authority business when he issued a statement to that effect in Washington, D. C., in 1937.

"I assumed he would not," declared the governor. "As it turned out, I was wrong."

His statement regarding McCloskey was issued to reporters as he left the White House in company with McCloskey, David L. Lawrence, Democratic state chairman and U. S. Sen. Joseph F. Guffey, the governor added.

Hunters Warned Of Electric Fence

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Nov. 23.—Sportsmen, going afield in quest of game are asked to be on the lookout for "electric fences" to avoid being shocked.

John E. Nicholas, professor of agricultural engineering at Pennsylvania State College, said the electric fence—used to keep cattle in an enclosure "is not particularly dangerous" but a surprise shock may cause a hunter to drop his gun and lead to a serious accident.

Butler Looking For Missing Young Man

Has Money Coming From Insurance Company And Cannot Be Located

Former Councilman B. F. Butler, spent the greater part of Tuesday going from house to house on Neshaunock avenue to see if he could get a trace of Edward Carl Smith for whom the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company holds a sum of money, but whose whereabouts is unknown.

Mr. Butler became interested in the case through a letter that came to his home addressed to Mrs. William Eichbaum, now deceased, and a sister of Mrs. Butler, Mrs. Eichbaum, formerly resided on North Jefferson street.

The letter which is addressed to Mrs. Eichbaum reads as follows: We are holding a sum of money payable to the insured under the number 64408414—Edward Carl Smith liability T 92435. We are trying to locate Mr. Smith.

Our insured if alive, would be approximately 18 years of age, at the present time and he is the son of Charlotte M. Smith, whom we have been informed was employed by you as a domestic in 1925. At that time they were residing at 489 Neshaunock avenue, New Castle, Pennsylvania.

We are writing you now in an effort to ascertain whether or not you are acquainted with their present whereabouts, or in the event they have removed possibly you may be in a position to furnish some information which may enable us to locate the family.

Yours truly,
JOHN B. NORTHPROP,
Manager of Claim Division.

Espionage Ring Reported Found

(International News Service)

LONDON, Nov. 23.—The Danish authorities officially announced the discovery of an espionage ring conducted in the interests of an unnamed foreign power, according to a Copenhagen dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph agency. Several persons were arrested including the director of a German bank, the Exchange dispatch declared.

The ring, according to the Copenhagen message, sought to obtain information about the movements of foreign warships using Danish ports. A foreigner, Horst Von Plick-Hartung was officially named as the ring-leader of the alleged spies.

THANKFULNESS

New Castle, Pa.,
November 23, 1938.

Mr. Fred L. Reniz, president
New Castle News,
New Castle, Pa.,

My Dear Mr. Reniz:

Not only at the holiday season, but many times throughout the year, Girl Scouts of New Castle Inc. feel a spirit of Thankfulness for generous publicizing of our activities by The News.

An organization such as ours can only grow in proportion to public interest and community understanding. The value of space given to special features during Girl Scout week and the editorial were thus doubly appreciated.

The local Council wishes to express particular thanks at this time, for the kind co-operation of Mr. Richards of your editorial staff, in speaking to troop scribes on the rudimentary practices of newspaper writing, and in taking time to conduct them through the plant.

Sincerely yours,
(Mrs. JOHN A.) ADALENE
W. EDGAR,
Chairman, Publicity.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Orville Anderson on Saturday evening, a seven pound son. Mother and babe are doing well.

Mrs. W. J. Blake returned Saturday from Harrisburg where she attended the State Council of Republican Women.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Orr and daughter of Rouseville and Mr. Wm. McClelland of Franklin were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Orr.

Mrs. Raymond Loutzenhiser of Greenville was the guest of Miss Mary Stewart, on Saturday and accompanied her to Youngstown where they visited a friend in Youngstown hospital.

Penny Garrett, who has made his home with Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Sullivan, left Sunday for West Virginia, where he will be stationed with the U. S. Navy. His brother, Paul of Pittsburgh visited him on Saturday.

Marquis Orr and son Junior, of Pittsburgh were Saturday guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Orr. They were accompanied to Pittsburgh by the former's father John Orr, who has spent several months in his brother's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Oakes of Volant have purchased the Merle Robinson home and will occupy it in the near future. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson moved their household goods on Saturday to their new home in Biglerville. The best wishes of their friends and neighbors in this community go with them to their new home.

The Ladies' Friendship Club re-elected the officers that had held offices in the club during the past year. President, Mrs. Helen Blake, vice president, Mrs. Margaret Masters, secretary, Mrs. Betty Armstrong, treasurer, Mrs. Esther Johnson, on Thursday, Mrs. Emma Bougher, Mrs. Irene Drake and Mrs. Taressa Cummings were appointed as a committee on arrangements for the Christmas meeting. Miss McCormick was present with suggestions for Christmas gifts. Towels were made for the children's home at Mercer at the meeting.

Millburn Grange held a special meeting at their hall on Friday evening. The first and second degree of the order were exemplified in full form by the degree team of Mt. Pleasant Grange in a very fine way. The ritualistic work is supplemented by well executed drill work and by a beautiful tableaux representing Hope. Preceding the degree work a most impressive graduating exercise was held by the Matron of the Juvenile Grange, Mrs. Ruth Robinson, for Charles Masson who was one of the class to take the first and second degrees. The Juveniles behind closed gates which were opened by the assistants of the subordinate grange bade farewell to their associate, who in symbolic fashion passed on to these realms. All that the Juvenile grange had meant to him and was received by the Master who welcomed Charles into the subordinate grange. The third and fourth degrees will be exemplified by the local grange on Friday evening November 25. Committee on refreshments for that evening is Mesdames Taressa Cummings, Emma Bougher and Myrtle Jenkins.

WHITE MEN IN NEW MEXICO

Although New Mexico was one of the last states to be settled, it was one of the first regions in this country occupied by the white man.

Hint to Washington: Democrats couldn't return as efficiently as Germany did, but the Germans were first welded into a unit by propaganda.

Death Bed Marriage Ceremony Is Upheld

Long-Time Private Secretary Of Late Illinois Legislator
Wins Fortune

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—A 20-year relationship that was judged "clean and holy" today was the principal reason why Mrs. Helen Troesch Shanahan was assured of obtaining the $850,000 estate of David E. Shanahan, late Illinois legislator.

Circuit Judge George E. Bristol upheld the validity of Shanahan's death bed marriage to his long-time private secretary. The legislator was 74 at the time.

In doing so he dismissed the suit of Shanahan's twin cousins, the Misses Mary and Margaret Flynn, who sought to prove Shanahan was mentally incompetent when the marriage took place.

"The evidence shows abundantly," said Judge Bristol, "that Shanahan was in full possession of his faculties and knew what he was doing when he married Helen Troesch."

"For 20 years there had been a clean and holy relationship between Shanahan and Miss Troesch. Even in their letters there was nothing to indicate any clandestine relationship. For a secretary to have conducted herself so for 20 years is commendable."

"The only way it would be possible to declare the marriage invalid would be to say that four doctors, two priests and various other witnesses committed perjury. I do not believe that."

The attorney for the Misses Flynn said they would appeal.

Recommend Two Slayers Be Given Death Respite

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Nov. 23.—Two condemned murderers—Roy Lockard, Altoona "spike" slayer, and William McKinley Blackwell, Allegheny county Negro killer—today were spared from death in the electric chair December 5 for at least another month.

The State Board of Pardons agreed to recommend to Gov. George H. Earle that the slayers be respite for a month while it deliberates clemency pleas.

MINOR WRECK TIEUP

Tuesday afternoon, about 4 o'clock, the engine and four cars of the local Erie Railroad freight train traveling from Sharon to this city, were derailed as a result of one car jumping the rails, on the private railroad siding, of the New Castle Water works. It was five hours before the wrecking crew and train, were able to repair the small damage, get that portion of the train again on the rails, and on its way to its destination.

HARLANSBURG NOTES

Miss Betty Rader of Enon Valley, who is a student of Slippery Rock State Teachers' College and Miss Ruth Beck of Lansdowne, Pa., have been recent guests of Miss Gertrude McKissick.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boozel of West Sunbury were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Kildoo, Sabbath evening. Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Kildoo of Sandy Lake were also callers in the same home Sabbath afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. James Rice and daughter, Sarah Mable, and Mrs. Sara Rice, all of Leesburg, visited at the J. G. McKissick home last Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Macdon and children of Glasgow, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. George Hettinbaugh and other relatives.

Rev. John A. King of Indiana, Pa., spent Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Kildoo.

Inventors should honor Adolf Hitler. He has discovered the secret of perpetual motion.

New Castle Hopes To End Football Year With Victory

Will Go To Sharon Thursday For Finale And Will Rule As Underdogs

Team And Band Will Ride Buses, Game Starts At 2:15 O'Clock

WITH high hopes of ending the 1938 football season at Sharon with a victory, some 35 or 40 young New Castle football players will hit the road tomorrow afternoon, the locals will be called upon to face the big orange clad Sharon high Tigers.

In event of favorable weather the Sharon high officials are not backward in predicting a crowd of between 10,000 and 12,000 for the annual classic. There is, despite the seasons that both teams have had, quite an interest in the impending battle. The New Castle team will try desperately to avenge that 7 to 0 defeat plastered on them last Tuesday in Taggart stadium by the pesky Tigers.

Grading the New Castle team out of New Castle will be Peckham Manager Norman Scott Nelson and Head Coach Phil Bridenbaugh. There will be a delicious dinner waiting for the boys when they arrive back home in New Castle after the game is over.

Seek Revenge
Coach Stewart wants to win tomorrow and make it two in a row over the New Castles. This not being done very often over a Bridenbaugh team. Despite the fact that he "canned" three of his regulars following the Farrell 25 to 7 slaughter, Stewart will put a strong team on the field.

Alex Wolansky, the quarterback, is a veteran of the past few years.

City Basketball League To Start On Next Sunday

Crisci Announces Schedule For First Week Of League, Gersons To Meet Keys

A final meeting of the eight teams in the City basketball league was held at the "Y" last night at 8 o'clock with Franklin R. Crisci, president. The season will open next Sunday at the Arena floor.

In the first game of the year the Gersons, city-county champs of last year will battle their rivals the strong Keystone A. C. team. This game starts at 2 o'clock, and will precede the Booster and Youngstown Sheet and Tube game.

Johnny Uram has drawn up the following first week schedule for the league teams:

Sunday—Gersons vs. Keystone.
Tuesday—Len's vs. N. Y. A.
Friday—Gus' Big Five vs. Wabash Bears.
Saturday—Union Civics vs. Gersons.
Sunday—Len's vs. Gus' Big Five.

Local Boys To Battle Monday

Arena Fight Card Will Also See Three Favorites In Action

KOWALIK TO FIGHT GENARO

Fight fans of this city who desire to see New Castle and other Lawrence county scrappers in action will have the wish appeased Monday night in The Arena. Every local boy available will be on the card. In addition Muddy Huriz, Regis O'Brien and Steve Kowalik, favorites here, are being brought back because of a demand of fans that Muddy, Regis and Steve get another "shot" here.

Among the local fighters will be Buck Chambers of West Pittsburgh, Blackie Ferrar of the South Side, Frankie Clark of Bessemer and Halbert Brooks.

Among the boys from Ohio who will be brought here is Frankie Genaro. He will meet Kowalik, a Polish-American, who has a large following here.

Clark returned from the U. S. Army recently and while he may have lost his first venture here, he is receiving another chance.

O'Brien is a favorite among the Irish-Americans and Kertz is liked by the Dutch fans. In fact, the card looks very much like a League of Nations bill, if names mean anything.

Rambling Around World Of Sports

Thanksgiving grid forecast: Before stepping into my shabby room, which I use to portray the life of a disgruntled "yogi," I'm playing safe by taking an overdose of spirits of ammonia, a couple of aspirins and a cup of tea for a chaser. With fingers crossed, our game of pie and pray begins:

Those Tartans of Carnegie Tech, following a much needed rest, are set to show the peepies of Raleigh that all those good things they have been hearing about the Skips are not fairy tales. Tech by at least a pair of touchdowns. At Forbes Field, Duquesne entertains Niagara. The Night Riders like home cooking and should rebound nicely following last week's disgraceful performance in the Orange Bowl. At Cleveland, Western Reserve takes on its neighboring foe, Case. The Wildcats, captained by Sir Frank "Tarzan" Crisci, should finish up in the proverbial blaze of glory.

In the most important clash of the day, as far as the Rose Bowl is concerned, Southern California tangles with U. C. L. A. Here's one game Howard Jones has to win. For this reason, he will shoot the works. I believe said "works" is a bit too much for the Uclans. Back we come to this district and give you St. Vincent over West Maryland. In another important clash, Columbia plays Brown. McLaughlin's boys lost two heart breaking games, one to Yale and the other to Holy Cross. With victory apparently in the bag, Dame Misfortune stepped in as the clock was about to finish its merry-go-round ride and turned victory smile into a ugly frown. I'll be different tomorrow. Anyhow, start pitcher Sid Luckman has a broken nose. He'll play, true. But, imagine trying to throw a piskin around with a five day old fractured "conk"?

In New York, Manhattan is set to down the undefeated but out-of-control Selah! Selah! Selah!

Delightful Banquet Held Tuesday Night

More Than 50 Persons Present; A. G. Capezzuti Serves As Toastmaster

FETE STAGED IN BESSEMER SCHOOL

Principal Nord Gives Interesting Address; Movies Also Enjoyed

Amid a colorful football setting, Bessemer said farewell to the 1938 piskin season with one of the most delightful banquets in years. Tuesday evening, in Bessemer high school.

The fete honored the undefeated and untied Bessemer team, which closed the season with a 7-0 defeat of Ellwood City, Saturday afternoon.

That room wherein sat more than 50 "banqueters" was streamlined to the height of perfection. This story would be incomplete without a word about that gridiron setting. The school's red and black, adorned every nook in the room, even those turkey filled plates. The five tables were changed into miniature football fields. Attractive red and black candles were converted into field goals with strips of red and black crepe papers marking off the gridiron. The room was filled with red and black colored balloons.

As to the culinary ability of those young ladies who prepared dinner, the turkey was in anybody's book. The turkey and the customary trimmings went down like salt water taffy. In brief, the folks of Bessemer set a new high with an event fit for a dozen kings. And those huskies tore into those steaming plates of food with the same agility and success as they enjoyed on the battle field. They again crashed through with flying colors.

Capezzuti Toastmaster

A. G. Capezzuti, genial mentor who developed one of the greatest Class B teams in the district and perhaps in anybody's book. The toastmaster, providing a felicitous one, Andy Blord, Ellwood City, the first speaker, congratulated the team and then presented the departing seniors with medals upon which are inscribed a photo of a football player and the words, Bessemer champs.

Principal Gerald Nord gave an interesting address, stressing sportsmanship. He complimented Coach Capezzuti and Charles Moore, assistant coach. In closing, Nord said, "Bessemer will always keep football where it belongs."

Other Speakers

A word of praise came from the following speakers: Charles Chadwick, president of the Bessemer School Board; Roy DeArment, treasurer of the Bessemer School Board; Harry Smith, secretary of the school board; Joe Wallace, a society. I thought the boys from the Great White Way were somewhat fortunate to lick West Virginia. Villanova gets the nod. Rose Bowl Kentucky, almost as unpredictable a club as Penn State. The undefeated Vols will show the Rose Bowl committee that Tennessee is the team I hope.

Philadelphia gridironologists will be out to see another crack-jack attraction between Penn and Cornell. In my book, Cornell is one of the sweetest clubs around, even if Syracuse had to spoil an otherwise spotless record. It's a pity a team like Cornell is not undefeated. Penn University will vouch for me, I believe, after its all over. Arizona has finally found its bearings and should dispose of Montana after a grueling struggle.

Now from chalk line to chalk line we tip toe: Wake Forest to subdue Davidson; West Virginia to wind up with a triumph over Geo. Washington; Missouri good enough to thump Kansas U. in a close number; Day-Western; Washington of St. Louis over St. Louis of St. Louis; Texas A. & M. to further extend Texas University's best list column; Arkansas to plaster another one on the schmezzolas of Tulsa which is still tired from chasing Detroit backs; Idaho is a little more than a shade better than Utah; North Carolina finishes up with an easy one—Virginia; V. M. I. to eke out a victory over V. P. I.

And, in conclusion: . . . Wichita U. to snap back DePaul; Xavier to whip Toledo; Miami U. over Cincinnati; U. of Cincinnati to annihilate Purdue; Wash and Lee over Maryland; Marshall with ease over West Virginia; Wesleyan and New Castles Red Hurricane to avenge last year's defeat at the hands of Sharon . . . Selah! Selah! Selah!

"Tarzan" Crisci To Captain Reserve In Case Battle

Coach Bill Edwards Picks Crisci On Big-Four First Team

Coach Bill Edwards of Western Reserve university at Cleveland has signally honored Frank "Tarzan" Crisci, of this city, Western Reserve's star lineman, by naming him to captain the Western Reserve Red Cats in the big annual Thanksgiving Day game with Case.

The game will be played at League Park in Cleveland, the home of the Cleveland Indians, and the home field for Reserve.

Crisci was also honored by Coach Edwards who in this selection of an all-star big four team, placed Frank Crisci on the first team and said of him: "He is the finest tackle in the conference."

Among those from New Castle who will go to Cleveland for the game are Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Crisci of Croton avenue, parents of the Reserve tackle, and Mr. and Mrs. Franklin R. Crisci of Hillcrest avenue.

Benefit Game At Taggart Stadium Set For Tonight

Wabash Bears And New Brighton Bombers On Edge For Game, Kick-off At 8 P. M.

EVERYTHING is in readiness for the big benefit football game at Taggart stadium tonight between the Wabash Bears of this city and the New Brighton Brown Bombers.

The kickoff at 8 o'clock should find the stands well filled. General Chairman Austin Comowadow says that all details have been taken care of.

With no rain apparent, but probably a light snow, the game will go on tonight. It was originally set for last Friday night, but was rained out. The entire proceeds will go to help the injured junior high graders of the past season. There were a number of boys who were severely injured and in need of medical assistance.

Bears Offer Services

The Wabash Bears, champions of Lawrence county, offered their services to the junior high committee headed by Austin Comowadow and the offer was accepted. It was decided to get the Beaver county champs as opponents and it so happened that the New Brighton Brown Bombers, a colored team, had moved up on every team in the valley and wanted a crack at Willie Demerick's 1938 championship Wabash Bears eleven. The game was promptly scheduled.

The game will no doubt be a real classic. The Bombers are composed of former high school stars in the valley, and feature Willie Walker, a 185-pound bundle of dynamite, who will be a triple threat to the Bears in every manner.

Coach Tippy Richards of the Bears will have his strongest possible lineup ready to face the Bombers. The Bears have been working out every day at the E. & A. field and have perfected a real forward passing attack. The Bombers will find Gabby DeCaprio and Micaletti, also Sammy Copple hard to stop tonight.

Committee Works Hard

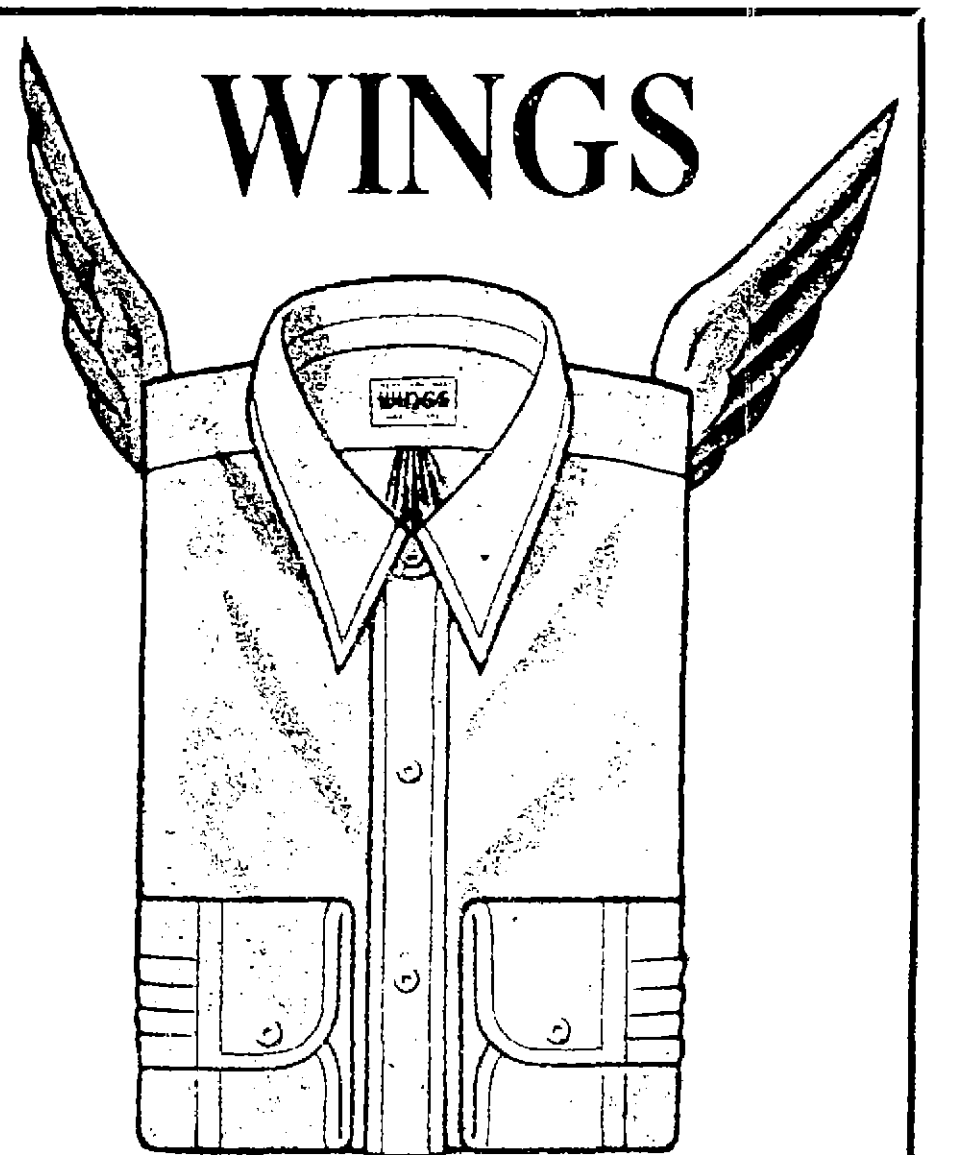

The tickets for the game are 25 cents for the adults and 10 cents for students. There has been a brisk sale of tickets the past two days and indications point to a well filled stadium when the kickoff occurs tonight. The gates will open at 7 o'clock.

The following committee has worked hard to assure the success of the game: Austin Comowadow, Art Alexander, Emmett Gillaspie, George Binder, Bill Wallace and Franklin R. Crisci.

The probable lineup:

Wabash Bears: Brown Bombers
Toscano, L. E., Butler
Rainey, L. T., Nicholas
Dombroski, L. G., Gosebov
Adams, C. J., Walker
Cagnetti, R. G., M. Bevan
Rusko, R. T., Smith
Tomatello, R.

Noora, R. E., Armstrong
Palkovich, Q. B., W. Walker
DeCaprio, L. H., Grant
Micaletti, R. H., Bell
Copple, F. B., Eastley
Referee—Johnny Gram (Salem)
Umpire—Texie Richards (New Castle)
Linesman—Bill Wallace (Slippery Rock)
Time of kickoff—8 p. m.

Roll Call To End Tomorrow

Lawrence County Chapter Hopes To Reach Budget Figures In Final Reports

CITY FIGURES BEST IN YEARS

With the figures from the 1938 Roll Call in the city showing the best receipts in years, officers of the Lawrence county chapter, American Red Cross, are hopeful that the final checkup will show a total close to the budget figure of $6,000 established by the budget committee.

Reports from the various ward chairmen in the city which were checked upon yesterday, were most satisfactory, but the canvass had not been completed yet in some districts, and tomorrow will be the final day for gathering up the loose ends.

Chairman Harry Alexander again appealed today to the workers to complete their canvass and turn in their reports as quickly as possible. A fine job has been done by the women workers under the chairmanship of Mrs. John S. Crowl, and the advanced gift committee headed by James K. Love, Chairman Alexander stated.

Predicts Return Of Romanoff Dynasty In Russia In Far Future

By J. C. OESTREICHER International News Service Staff Correspondent

LONDON, Nov. 23.—An inevitable "change of regime" in Russia, enabling restoration of the Romanoff dynasty, was predicted Tuesday by Grand Duke Vladimir, 21-year old son of the late Grand Duke Cyril, pretender to the vanished Russian throne.

Immediately after he assumed the resounding title of "emperor of all the Russians" and announcing his intention of carrying on the restoration campaign which filled the last years of his father's life, Vladimir made known his plans in a telephone interview from his modest home at St. Briac, Brittany, where he is almost a "neighbor" of Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh.

Events Of Future "What I shall do," he said, "depends upon events of the future. The great desire of my life, of course, is to carry on the work of my father and try to realize his ambitions. He worked many years for a restoration. I think it is quite possible that some day a change of regime may come about in Russia that will enable the monarchy to be restored. I must admit, of course, that such a thing is far ahead."

The Grand Duke was asked whether it was his intention to restore the Romanoff court in all its pomp and panoply, with the sharp class divisions that led Russia to the Bolshevik revolution.

"No," he replied, "it would undoubtedly have to be very different. If I should return and establish a court, it would certainly be on more Democratic lines than the last and very much simpler in style."

In Agreement "My father went into this question very thoroughly and discussed the results he arrived at with me. I am in entire agreement with his plans. I want very much to go to Russia. My education has been so complete that I feel I know it already."

Born in Finland in 1917, the year of the Bolshevik revolution, Vladimir has lived all his life in England and France. He was a student at London University at the time of his father's death, but it is generally regarded as unlikely that he will return to resume his studies.

Although Vladimir's claims as the pretender have been accepted by Russian aristocrats in France, there is still a considerable body of monarchists here who favor Prince Vsevolod, grand-nephew of the late Czar Nicholas. A level-headed businessman now engaged in the trade in London, he is supported by many for the role of pretender.

Attorney Homer C. Drake, Civil Engineer Alex Main and Ivo Davis, members of the board of permanent viewers have awarded William Wylie Wallace, $1,800 damages to his property on the New Castle-Youngstown road, by reason of the widening. Testimony for the petitioners and the county was taken before the viewers several weeks ago. Wallace owns over nine hundred feet frontage on the road, and nine or ten acres of land, including a number of shade trees. One of the big items of damage was a drain leading from the road into his property at the east end. He claimed that this ditch caused water to flow over his garden.

In the case of Adelaide Timreck and others against Mary Eva Clendenin and others, heirs interested in the Boyles estate, sales made by the Master, Attorney Orville Brown, have been confirmed by the court, and Mr. Brown has given bond in the sum of $150,000, with the Commercial Casualty Company as surety, for the faithful handling of the money derived from the proceeds of recent sales. The bond has been approved by the court.

Tellers engaged in counting the vote cast at the recent election have been held up in the work by inaccuracies in the election returns. No less than eight ballot boxes had to be called in and the votes recounted. The boxes called in were as follows: Third district, first ward; first district, second ward; eighth district, second ward; third district, sixth ward; third district, eighth ward; first district, Union Township; fourth district, Union Township and the first district of Washington township. Two other boxes were called in but the ballots did not have to be counted, as the mistakes were discovered. All this extra work could have been avoided had the election boards been more careful in making out their return sheets. The mistakes discovered were of a clerical nature and did not materially affect the results.

Flying Squirrels In Gaston Park Zoo

Pair Captured Near New Power Plant And Turned Over To Fox

Charles M. Giddings, Pennsylvania Power Company forester reports that while cutting down some timber on the hill, on their new transmission right of way, about two miles below Mahoningtown, he and a force of men located some "flying" squirrels.

They were cutting down a maple tree, which had two dead branches projecting upward high, from the main trunk. Mr. Giddings was watching the dead limbs carefully to warn the men of danger, should they suddenly snap off. When the tree began to fall, a flying squirrel sprang out of one of the dead limbs, intending to land on another branch, but which fell away from it so rapidly that the squirrel landed on the ground. The men at once set out to capture the animal, and soon found they had a task on their hands.

Its mode of travel being to glide from branch to branch (being the original gliders) the web construction of their back legs, hinder their ground traveling. It hopped about and along the ground, and when one of the men came near, it would climb to his shoulder, then glide off to a stump if within reasonable distance, no trees being near. When it was finally captured, it was placed in a dinner bucket. Then a hunt was started for the male, which was found hiding near a dead branch, which was caught with about the same difficulty as the first, and placed in another dinner bucket. Both squirrels were taken to Mr. Fox, who has them now reposing in the Zoo at Gaston Park.

Mr. Giddings states that he has seen one of these flying squirrels glide from the top of a tree, about a hundred feet high, down to almost the base of another tree.

Confirm Report New Protest By United States

Request Assurances For Protection Of Interests Of American Citizens

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—The state department confirmed reports from Berlin that the American embassy had made a formal request for assurance by the Nazi government that its recent anti-semitic decrees will not apply to American citizens.

Secretary of State Hull said that the representations were made to the German foreign office by Prentiss Gilbert, who is in charge of the American embassy in the absence of Ambassador Hugh Wilson.

The ambassador is now enroute to the United States on order of President Roosevelt, to make a personal report on Germany's persecutions of racial and religious minorities. In the representations, Gilbert cited the decree of the German government of Nov. 12 terminating on Jan. 1. The right of Jews to engage in various commercial activities, and the assurances given in a recent statement by Minister of Propaganda Goebbels that the recent decrees affecting German Jews would not apply to Jews of foreign nationalities. Gilbert requested formal assurances that American citizens would not be affected.

Guild Cast Is Busy On 'Journey's End'

"Journey's End," that great war play of international success, will be presented December 8 by New Castle Civic Theater Guild players as the second of a series of winter plays in the George Washington junior high school auditorium.

Rehearsals have started, it was announced today. Tomorrow the cast will be announced. Rated by professional critics as "one of the great dramas of our time," the play brings to the stage something a little finer in the way of character analyses and psychological problems than standard war plays. It was written by R. C. Sheriff.

It's fashionable for women to be feminine again, says a style note. Just for the novelty of it, I suppose.

Many Streets Are Improved In Union Township Recently

Federal WPA Projects And Property Owners Put Many Streets In Shape

Through the cooperation of the property owners of Union township and the federal WPA projects, many streets in that township have been greatly improved this past year. All of the labor and equipment is furnished by the WPA and the materials are purchased by the property owners for such work.

Streets in the township that have already been improved this year are: Smithfield street, Sunny avenue, Grandview avenue, English avenue, Bluff street, Boston avenue and Miller avenue. All of these streets have been given good substantial stone and gravel bases and a good surface.

Mahoning road is now under construction. This roadway will be given stone and gravel base and if the property owners agree the street might be amended.

Two streets not included in the above list, Round and Maple streets, have both been given a black top surface this year. Yet to come in this new project is the improvement of the following streets: Lee avenue, Moore avenue, Division street and High street.

The road supervisors stated today that they hope that those persons living on the last named streets will agree to have black top placed on the surface to make the streets more permanent.

Road supervisors for Union township who are responsible for a great deal of this work are E. S. Hanna, J. C. Perkins and Pete Gierlach.

Drops Of Snake Venom Are Fed To Boy Near Death

Is Suffering With Rare Malady—Hemorrhage Of Small Capillary Blood Vessel

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 23.—Three drops of venom from a cottonmouth snake were given Tuesday to Donald Richardson, in an effort to cure a rare malady—hemorrhage of the small capillary blood vessels. The three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Richardson was brought to the general hospital November 14 suffering from nose-bleed. Doctors tried several remedies before the bleeding finally stopped. An examination then revealed that tiny blood-clots, the size of a pin head, appeared all over the boy's body. Doctors realized that the small capillary blood vessels, just under the skin, were rupturing. Finally, after every other known method had failed to cure the boy, they decided on the rare treatment with the snake venom. The venom is expected to make the blood congeal faster, thus preventing it from escaping the ruptured vessels. Donald will be given increasing doses of the venom until his resistance will stand 10 to 12 drops daily. Be sure matches are extinguished before you discard them. Insist upon this point with all members of the family. Disastrous fires often are started by unextinguished matches.
